“Time”

slowly, slow, fast, too fast
No stopping of time, night through another day.
Then faster and faster, no moments of rest
The clock will somehow keep ticking away

There still remains a constant tick, years soon pass-
The distant tomorrow suddenly becomes a yesterday:
Many only hope and dream for the future
While aging people feel their youngness drifting away

faster, fast, slow, too slow
Still some will be the dream of others past.
Slowly they live life just as yesterday
And try so hard to make their memories last

Happily, there will be the ones who live in the present-
Forgetful of the past, unbothered with time ahead
Living in a constant standstill, they ignore the approaching future
Without a worry or care even thought of in their head

slowly, slow, fast, too fast
No stopping of time, night through another day.
Then slower and slower, its sudden moment of rest-
No ticking.
Time had endlessly ticked itself away

Class of 1975

Diary,

Thursday, September 27

With summer over, autumn here and a new school year upon us, it seems only right to look back, but also to the year ahead.

Bicycling, cycle riding and Saturday afternoons at big quincy are over. Really kinda makes me sad, ya know?

But, homecoming, coal bucket and winter clothes are just around the corner. And with initiation over, the sophomores are officially a part of us now!

Classes haven't been too bad. I mean, not yet anyway! Everyone is still kind of excited about school starting, but that will wear off, I'm sure! Anyway, whether we're happy or sad, school has started!

After winning their first eight of nine games, the Dragons were almost a shoe-in for the SEKL title. On November 2, the team lost to Columbus 12-7 in the annual Coal Bucket rivalry. A group of 33 depressed boys were sitting in the locker room after the defeat, upset over losing the Coal Bucket, but once again just less than best: Chanute also had an 8-1 record, and they were playing Iola! Just when their spirits were the lowest, Carl Cobb, radio announcer on KSEK for the Purple Dragons burst into the lockerroom to announce that Chanute had lost to Iola! For the first time in five years, we were the SEKL CHAMPS!

Enthusiasm Great After 8 Wins

PITTSBURG 21, INDEPENDENCE 0

Offensive backs Rudy Polchlopek, Dennis Sumpter and Don Free each tallied a touchdown and John Oldham added three extra points in the season opener, September 7 on Hutchinson field. Independence, favored over the home-town Dragons, could get nothing going on a swampy, Friday night field.

PITTSBURG 9, CHANUTE 7

Predicted a favorites to win the SEKL title, the Chanute Comets fell prey to the fired up Dragons. John Oldham booted a field goal prior to the end of the first half, and the Dragons marched 60 yards in 13 plays after the second half kick-off for 6 points by Don Free. Safety Steve Smith made a game saving catch and thwarted a Comet drive on the Dragons five yard line late in the contest.

PITTSBURG 67, ALTAMONT 0

With touchdown runs totaling 246 yards, the Dragons scored ten times at Altamont in the first away game of the '73 season. Touchdowns were: Dennis Sumpter, Jeff Goble and Rudy Polchlopek-2 apiece, and Rick Hurst, E.G. Amoneno, Greg Garman and Robert Scott each hit paydirt once. John Oldham had seven successful point-after attempts.

PITTSBURG 23, IOLA 0

On a slippery Hutchinson Field, the Dragons rode the passing arm of QB Don Free to their fourth consecutive conference win. Free completed 6 of 7 passes and scored once, while Jeff Goble added two more tallies. John Oldham compiled two extra points and a field goal.

PITTSBURG 13, FT. SCOTT 7

Dennis Sumpter scored twice on one yard plunges set up by long runs by Rudy Polchlopek and John Oldham split the uprights for one point in a homecoming spoiler at Ft. Scott. Monster Man Greg Garman stopped a fourth quarter Tiger drive with a fumble recovery and Steve Smith came through with another game-saving interception.

PITTSBURG 14, PARSONS 0

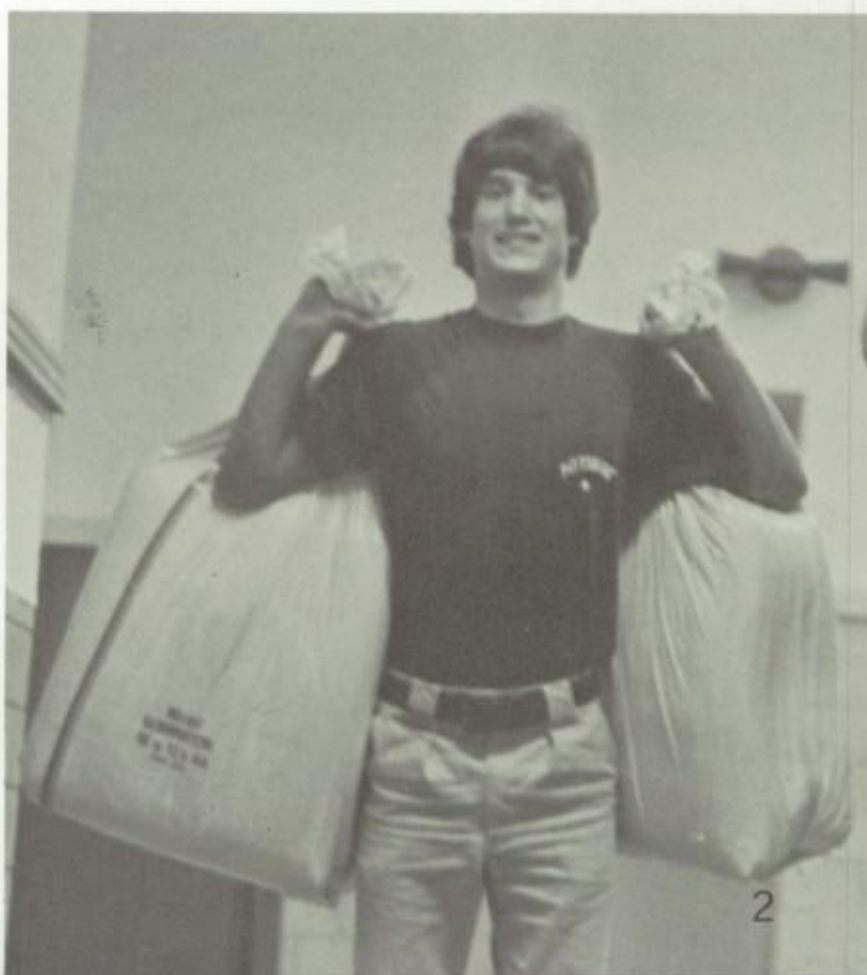

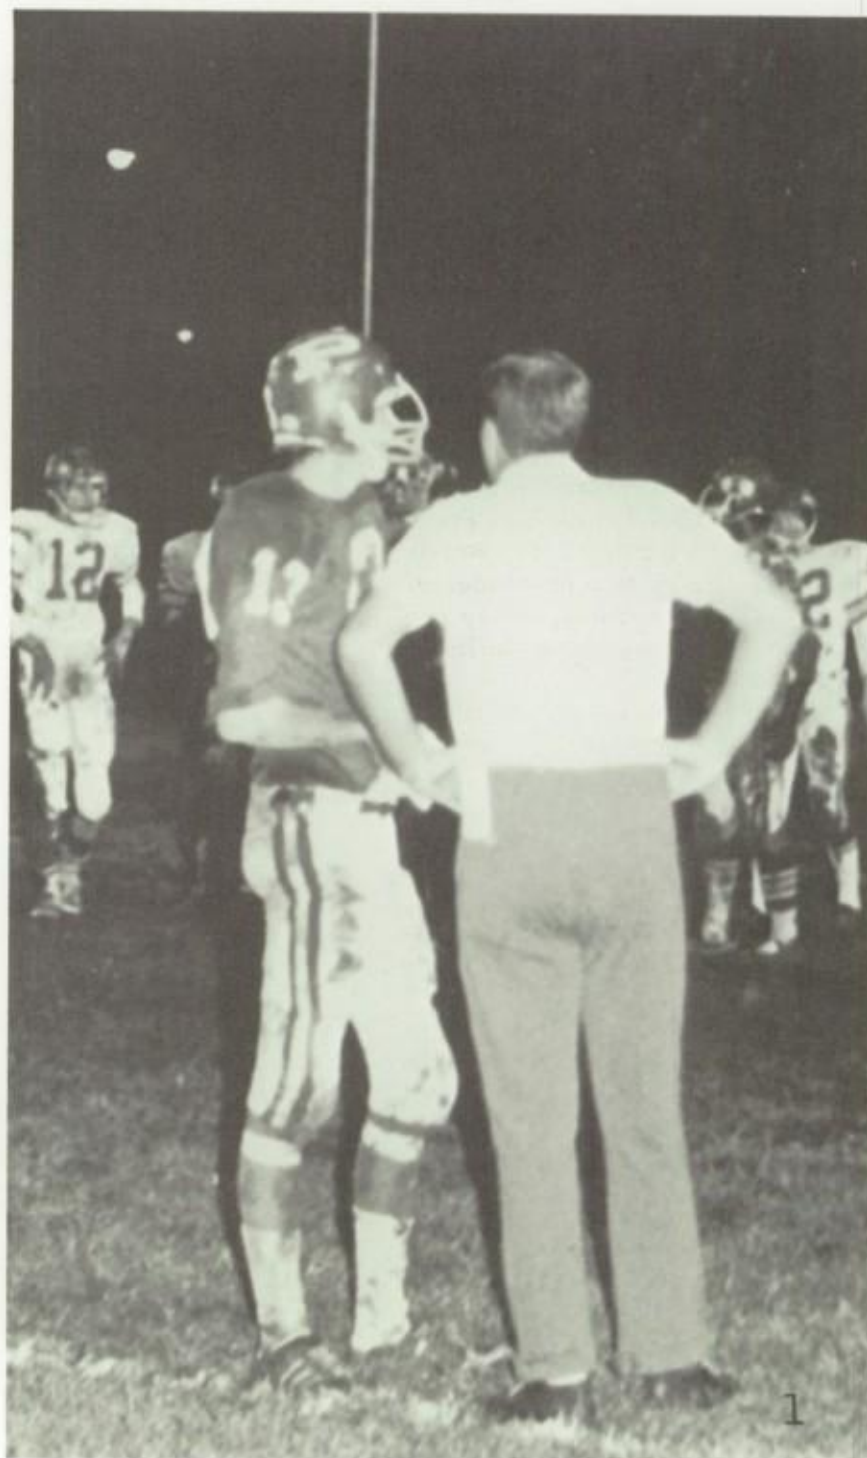

John Oldham and Carl Flora came through with important fumble recoveries on a slippery Parsons field. Rudy Polchlopek scored in the first quarter and Fred Kennon caught a pass for 6 points in the fourth quarter. John Oldham booted the extra points.

PITTSBURG 47, COFFEYVILLE 20

After a fumbled kick-off by the Dragons and an interception by Steve Smith, Jeff Goble breezed 83 yards for his first of three touchdowns on homecoming night. Rudy Polchlopek, Don Free, Fred Kennon and Dennis Sumpter each added a tally, and John Oldham booted five extra points. At halftime, Captain Carl Flora crowned 1973 Football Queen, Miss Kim Clugston.

PITTSBURG 21, SPRINGFIELD CENTRAL 6

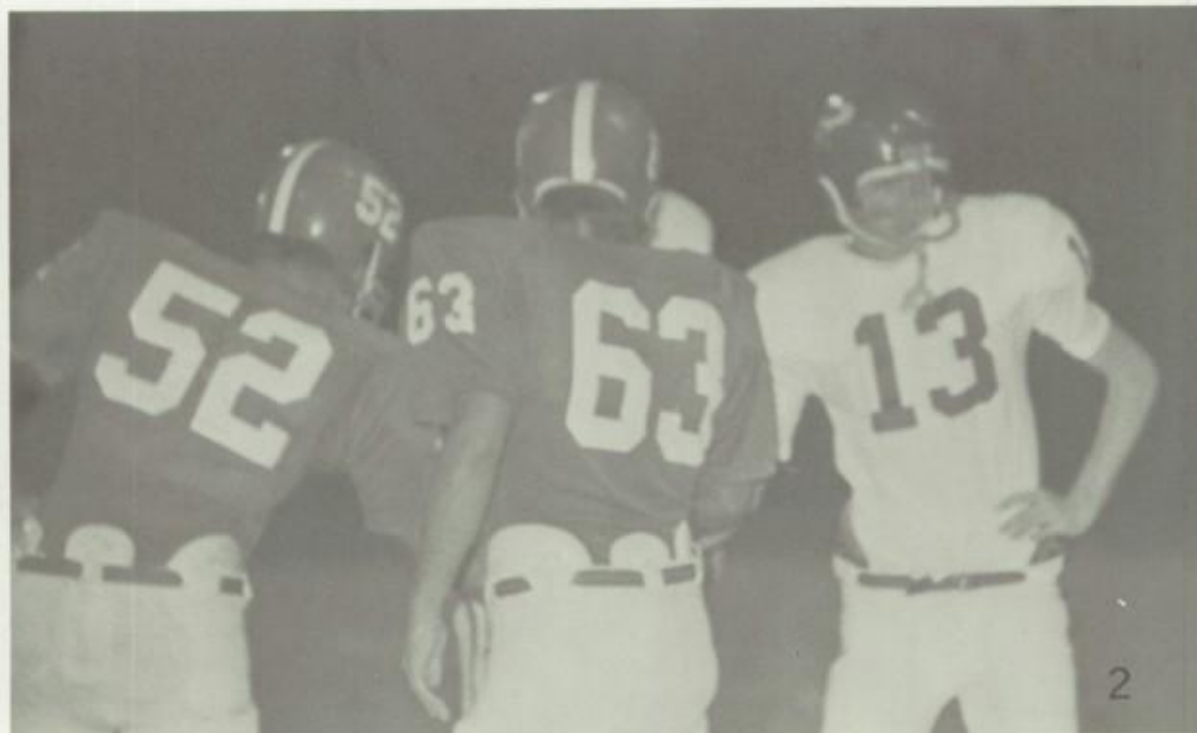

In their only out-of-conference game of the regular season, the Dragons scored their 8th victory of an 8-1 season. The game, delayed 30 minutes because of rain, did not turn out to be the contest it had been predicted as. Jeff Goble and Rudy Polchlopek scored 1 and 2 touchdowns respectively for the Dragons, with John Oldham booting 3 extra points.

(1) Head Coach Larry Garman and quarterback Don Free discuss offensive plans for the Dragons in a winning effort against the Independence Bulldogs. (2) You can't play a game without clean towels! Rick Hurst, on game day, supplies the team. (3) The only game we were assured of winning: the scrimmage! And the purple triumphed. (4) Coach Jameson is full of congratulatory remarks to Greg Garman and Tim Thomas as the end of the Ft. Scott game nears, while Coaches Garman and Watson concentrate on the remaining seconds of the contest. (5) Summer practices in t-shirts and shorts were hot! And the watermelon feed marked the beginning of practice in pads. Watermelon usually tastes good, but when it announces practice in pads? (6) Pride, Desire, Guts, Ability: as Don Free contemplates the upcoming game, those words haunt him. Painted on the doors, as a reminder of what is contained within the locker room, many PHS students and fans also experienced those feelings every Friday night of the season.

Early Wins Set Dragons On

(1) Carl Flora, defensive captain, checks strategy with Coach Jameson. Carl was leading tackler, for the Dragons and on ALL-SEK first team. (2) Captain Don Free shows tension as he meets (?) the Fort Scott captains prior to the game. (3) The scoreboard tells the tale at Fort Scott. (4) Halfback Rudy Polchlopek is ridden to the ground by two Parson's defenders. (5) Rudy Polchlopek and Curt Medlin lead the way onto the field at homecoming battle with Coffeyville. (6) John Oldham, a three year kicker, holds many SEK records. (7) Quarterback Don Free sprints around end on the option play. Jeff Goble trails Don, ready for the pitch. (8) Rudy Polchlopek gets off a clutch kick in the mud against Independence. (9) Captains Don Free and Rick Hurst call toss as Coffeyville gets ready for a losing effort against the mighty Dragons. (10) The 1973 SEK Champs!

Sad Endings to a Good Beginning:

"Let's go 9-0, KEEP OUR BUCKET!" The "friendly rivalry" had been going on all week, with bets between the seniors, midnight trips between the two towns. The 5-3 Titans were hosting our 8-0 Dragons in the year's biggest conference game.

Columbus was high, and they hadn't lost a game all season at home. But the Dragons hadn't lost a game all season and this one was very important. Above all else, we had to keep the bucket.

They scored, twice in fact. So what? They can have the bucket for a year. We'll get it back. We're going to State and we've got the S.E.K.L. title all by ourselves!

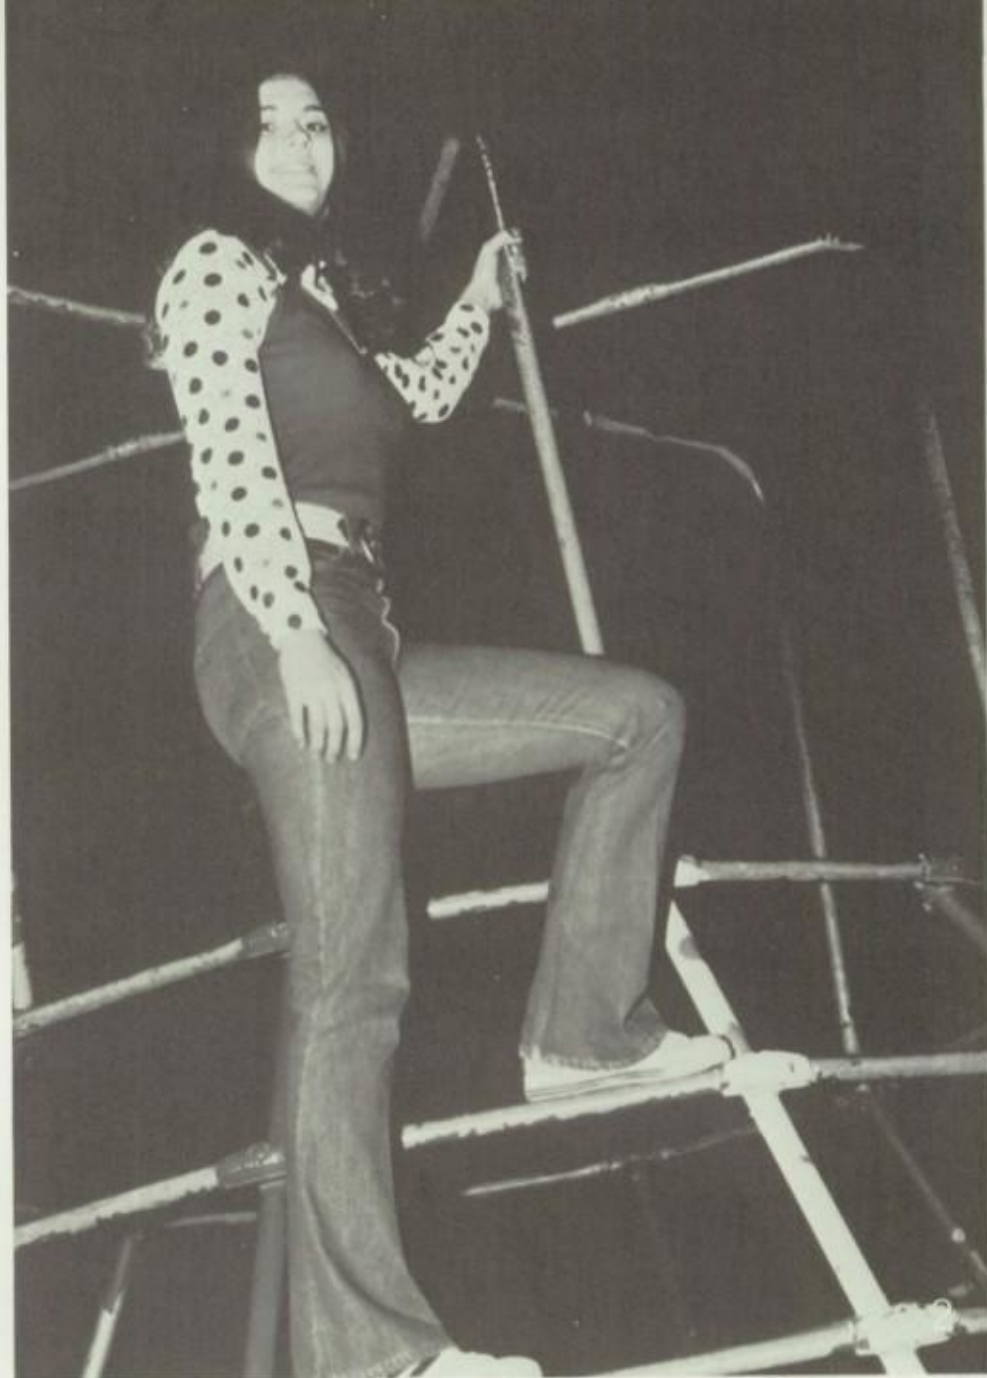

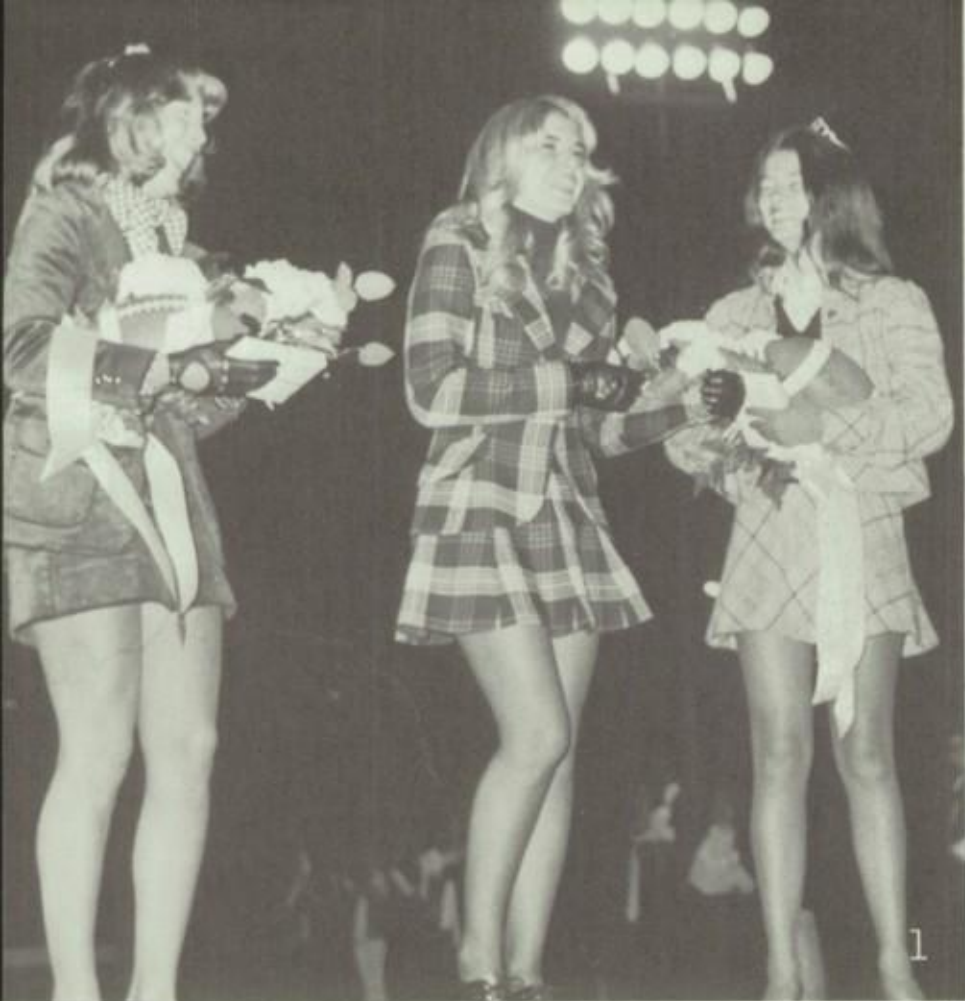

(1) As a "get spirit" gimmick, the Cross Country team carried a fake coal bucket to Columbus on a 29 mile pre-game jaunt. (2) Dennis Sumpter struggles for yardage after a Free handoff, (3) The Dragons try desperately in their first losing effort of an 8-2 season. (4) Quarterback Don Free reflects the feeling of the team after their last turnover--dejection. (5) Varsity cheerleaders Cindy Divine and Kim Clugston show dismay as the final buzzer rings at Columbus, ending a "could've-been-more-glorious" season.

Columbus 12-7; Highland Park 22-18

(1) Fred Kennon strides toward the goal line after grabbing a long Free pass, (2) The pep club and band form a snake to escort our Super Dragons on the Brandenburg Field in the Class 4-A District playoffs. Unfortunately, we just weren't super enough to overcome the Topeka-Highland Park Scotties, (3) Rudy Polchlopek attempts a corner with a Highland Park defender going in for the tackle, (4) Dennis Sumpter blocks a Scottie while Don Free fades back to pass, (5) John Oldham boots in a field goal to pull the Dragons ahead 18-16. The Scotties quickly regained the lead and held it 22-18, closing the season for Pittsburg. Two losses saddened the S.E.K.L. champs, but heaped thoughts of getting "our bucket" back and trying for state onto the fire of next years team.

Queen Kim Reigns Over Homecoming '73

(1) Jill Crain and Mindy Kreissler congratulate Kim Clugston through tears of happiness as she awaits her crowning. (2) Susie Deill, Lady in Waiting, pauses for a few moments on her way to the top of the jungle gym; Keep on climbing Suz! (3) Jill Crain, First Attendant, starts onto the field with a big smile and a firm grip on Dennis Barley's arm. (4) Our 1973 Homecoming Queen, Miss Kim Clugston. (5) Jamie Ortoloni's confidence doesn't seem to console Mindy Kriesler, Second Attendant, as she walks tensely beside him. (6) Kim shows her shock and surprise as they announce she was elected queen. (7) Kerri Church, Lady in Waiting, flashes a big smile back at the camera as she poses on a merry-go-round. (8) Becky Grisham, Lady in Waiting, and her escort Rusty Mosburg start out at a fast clip on their way to the candidates platform.

Cross Country Runners Kept Right

(1) FRONT: Jim Cashero, Jack Suenram, Jim Bussone, Jim Merello, Jim Laidler, Bill Johnson and Greg Tucker. BACK: Randy Shaw, George Scholes, Berry McClure, Randy Turnbull, Lance Johnson, Ron Gariglietti and Steve Thomas. (2) Randy Shaw, Berry McClure, Lance Johnson, Jim Laidler and George Scholes begin a practice run at the school. The courses they trek usually average 5 to 10 miles, but these boys take it with a smile. (3) Coach Hanson discusses a practice prior to it's beginning with some of the team members. To build endurance, they usually hold two hard practices a day; one before and one after school. (4) Jim Bussone, leading runner of the team, is shown battling for first place with an opponent. (5) Berry McClure, Greg Tucker and Lance Johnson relax before the Pittsburg Invitational meet held at Four Oaks Golf Course. (6) Coach Hanson directs the runners around the course at Pittsburg Invitational. PHS runner Jack Suenram is out in front with another runner, Jim Wade, closing in. (7) The start of the meet is a critical time for the runners; here, they battle for top position.

On Truckin' . . .

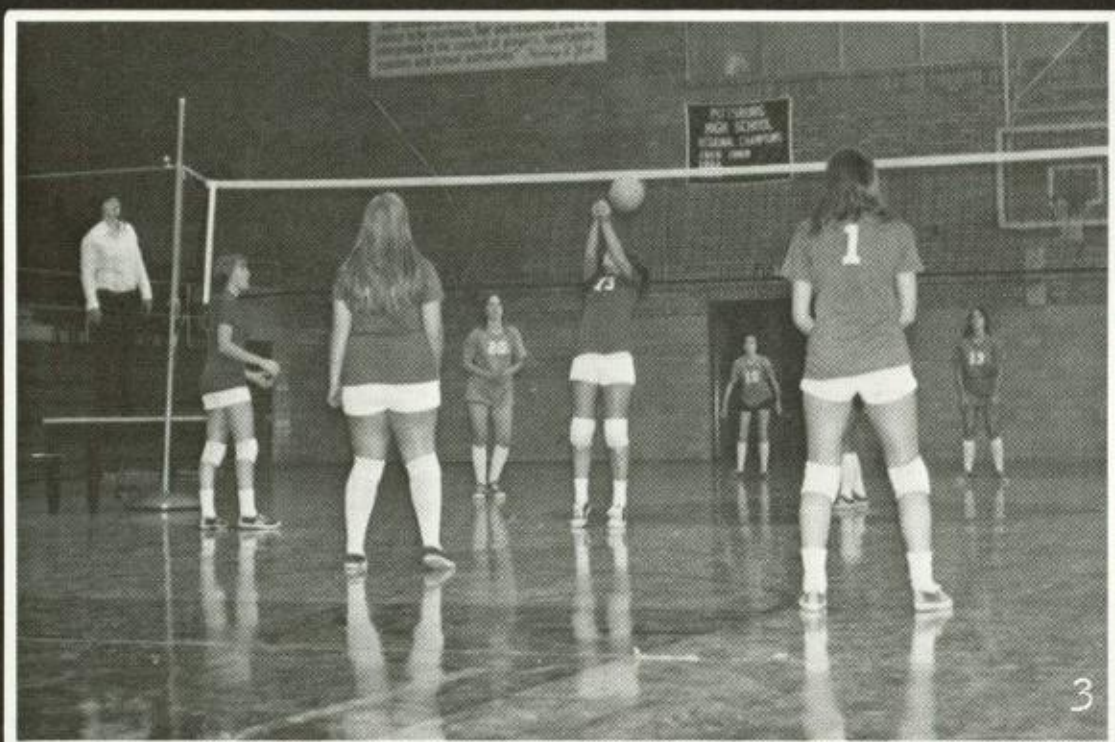

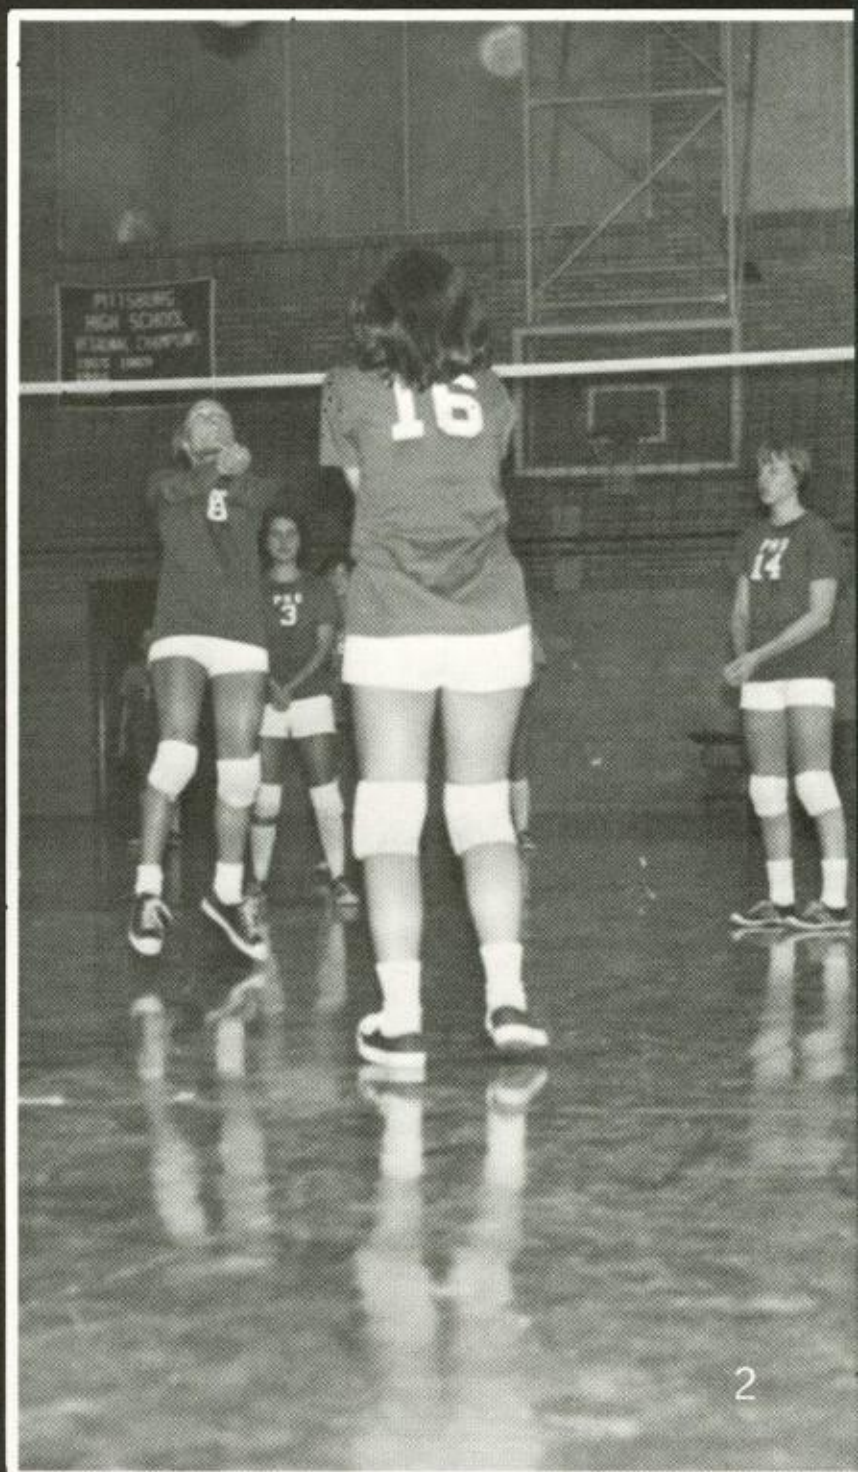

Future Billie Jean King's?

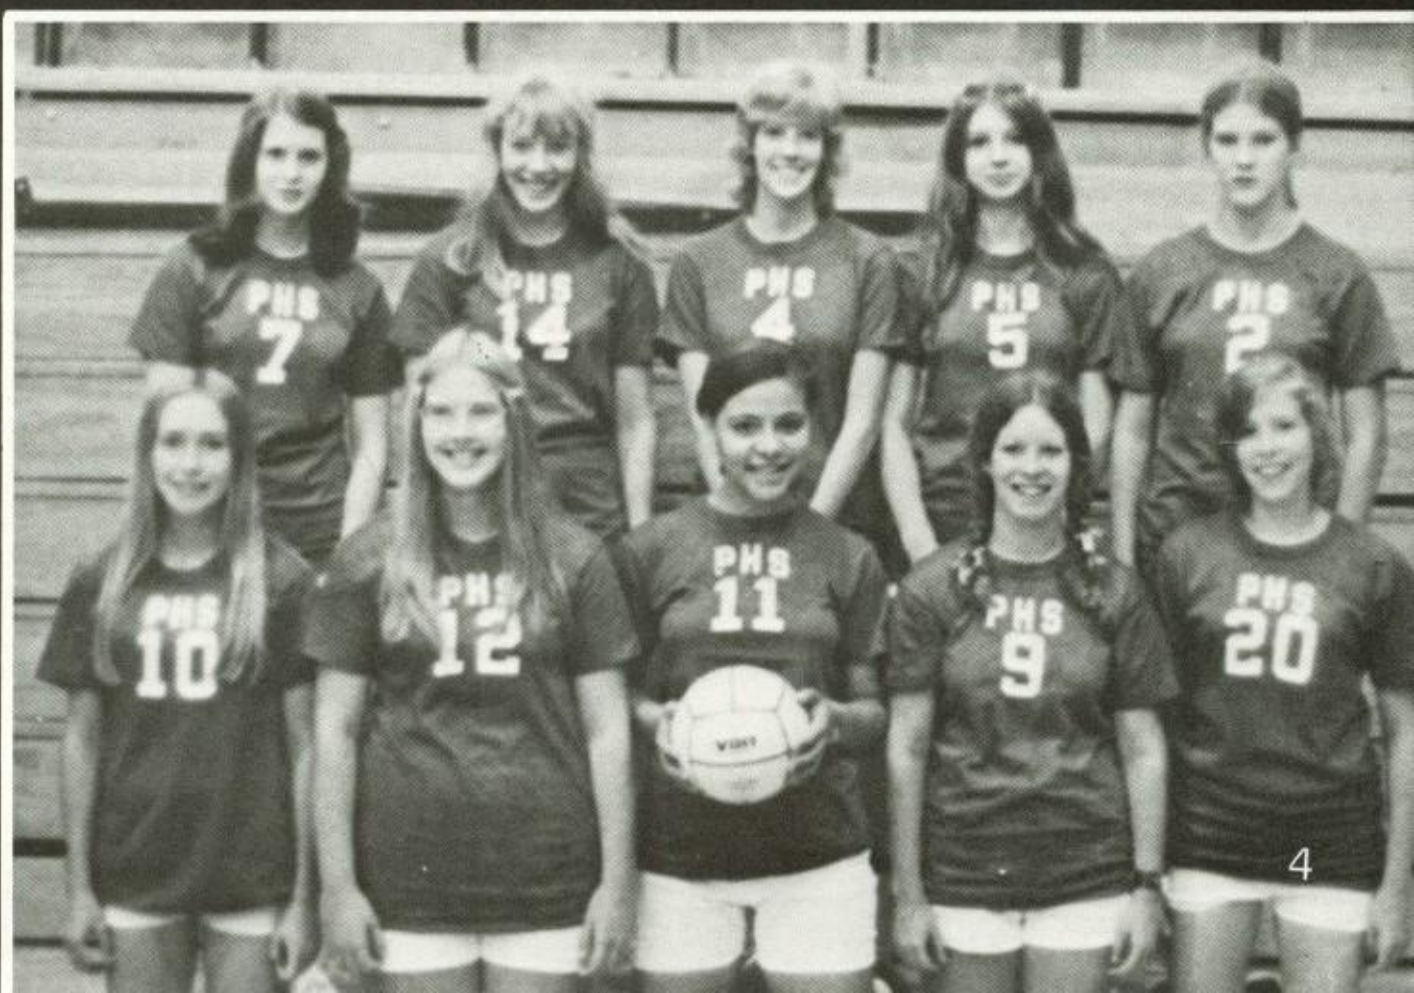

(1) Liz Chambers keeps on her toes for the start of the game. (2) The '73 team. (3) Debbie Kennett returns a deep forehand shot. Kennett and Kemp captured 2nd place at the Parsons Invitational tournament, topped only by their teammates, Tracy and Farley. Tracy was undefeated in league play. (4) Kerri Merrell stretches to return the ball to Chambers and Hight in one of their "threezies" games, a combination of singles and doubles. (5) Rhonda Schiler slams the ball for another of her famous but feared smashes. Schiler, the #1 player and undefeated in doubles, teamed up with Farley, also undefeated in doubles, and reached quarterfinals at Regionals.

14-10 . . . Game Point!

(1) Team B; FRONT; Cathy Tannehill, Lena Aikman, Marybeth Caldwell, Crystal Mathis. BACK; Terre Spencer, Gloria Blurton, Denise Park, Chris Stice, Chris Van Tassel. (2) Lena Aikman, a junior on the girls team, throws her hands over her head to sock the ball back over the net to her opponents side, as her teammates watch carefully in case the ball takes a bad bounce! (3) Denise Park uses the same technique as her teammate. Denise said, "Mrs. Samuels pounded that into our heads!" This was the first year for the team and they ended with a successful season. The A and B team's won against McCune and Frontenac and placed 2nd at the St. Paul tournament. Plans are being made for next years team to assure a full season. (4) Team B, FRONT; Valeri Samuels, Kathy Conley, Renee Cliett, Deni Morse, Jana Sullinger. BACK; Pam Handshy, Coleen Bishop, Bernie Hiner, Clara Pruitt, Michele O'Connell.

Ya Gotta Get There Somehow!

(1) Joyce Upton prefers nothing but riding her bike to school. All through her high school years, she has peddled to school arriving around 7:50 a.m. Rain, Sun, Snow, or Sleet, she will always remain faithful to her two-wheeled vehicle. (2) When you live in the country, you usually ride the bus to school. And you're not by yourself... 30 to 45 kids pack on to already crowded buses at 7:00 a.m. or earlier for a 45 minute scenic tour of the countryside before being dumped at the school, only to be escorted home on the same bus, by the same driver, next to the same kids, approximately 7 1/2 hours later. (3) "Riding to school is no fun," says Sherri Frank. So when it's her turn to drive, she leaves the house 30 to 40 minutes early and makes the rounds to 7 or 8 girls houses and they all ride to school in her little yellow sardine-can. (4) Hi-Ho Silver, Away!! Jamie Ortaloni gets a good head start on the 3:20 homeward rush. (5) Bikes and cars aren't for Hersel and Cesil Brown on their daily trips to school. These two brothers keep right on truckin' by way of the ten toe express.

... And What Did You Have for Lunch ...?

(1) What could be so fascinating about an elm tree? Maybe it's just lunch time and some senior guys are getting together to talk about the game, next weekend, or last Saturday night listening to the coyotes! (2) With nothing better to do, a group of senior boys join the conglomeration of students already blocking the front steps, just waiting for some unsuspecting chick in a short dress to come "struttin" by. (3) There is a law in our school that says, "Pupils who drive a motor vehicle to school must not remove their vehicles from the school grounds at noon, unless the student has permission from the office." Felicia Sachetta solves this problem by having Mark Creasy take her to lunch. (4) A welcome break to the schedule of classes in our new longer lunch period! Besides being a time for gobbling and slurping down our food, many P.H.S. organizations use this 34 minutes for a "get-rich-quick" interlude. The seniors sell donuts and Purple Dragon license plates, C.O.E. - candy and FHA sells ice cream. And the P.H.S. students consume food not necessarily a part of the basic 4. (5) Enjoying nature and eating each other's lunches, are what Terri Hall and David Giffin like to do during their lunch hour...They always said "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach! How about it, David? (6) After gulping down stale sandwiches, soggy potato chips, and trying to drink frozen "shasta", these sophomore girls are ready to face another two hours and twenty-six minutes of teachers.

Re-instatement of Activity Period —

Useless, Necessary Or??

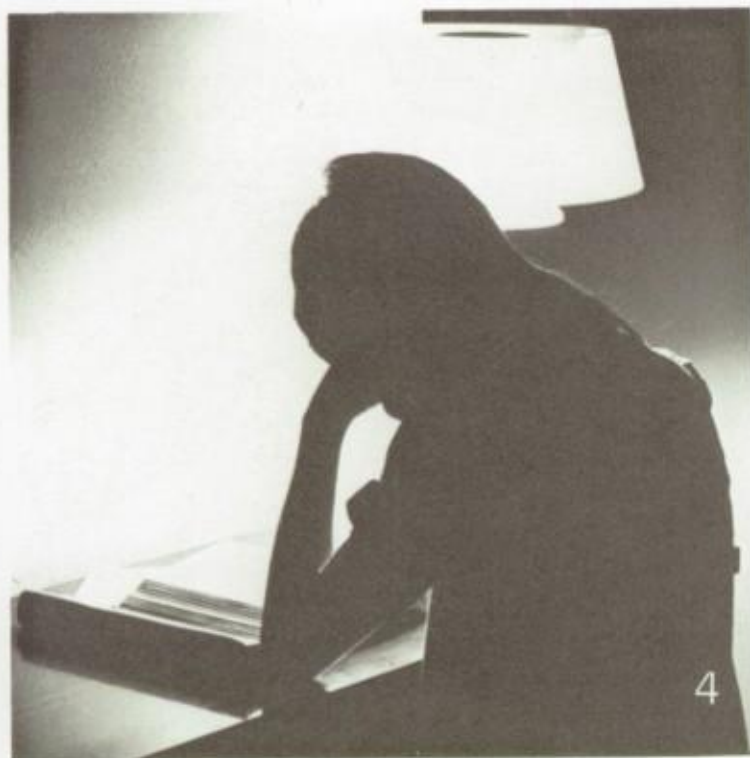

(1) The Chess Club meets during activity period. Pictured here are Diana McQuade and Liz Chambers, concentrating on their next moves, while Connie Shultze, Brian Jones, and Lane Stafford watch. (2) During football season, Dennis Sumpter and Fred Kennon spend some of their activity periods watching films of games. (3) Most students are eager to do one thing at activity periods, and that's to leave their classes and go somewhere else. As here in Mrs. Smith's class students ask to be excused, (all at once) (4) Doug James makes use of his activity periods by refreshing himself at the water fountain. He is probably on his way to a meeting, his locker, or a trip around the halls. (5) A few students even resort to catching up on school work. Here Sherre Frank, Janie Bartley, and Pam Ward help each other out with a little group studying. (6) The library makes a good place to meet friends and pass the time that activity period provides. It seems like more fun to "do their yakkin" there instead of someplace else.

Varied Night-time Activities Add

Spice to Students' Lives.

(1) Just takin' it easy! Tony Arthur, Tony Brown, and Jim McCullough find pleasure in sitting around on the Broadway park benches watching the world go by. (2) There's always a few stragglers after the traditional bon-fire. Lori Herman, Dianne Daugherty, Maggie Murry, Roxanne Pearson, and Sherri Frank watch as the last ashes fall from the Columbus Titan. (3) Is it the Indy 500? No just Kent Belew racing down the road in a cloud of smoke. He turns his head to check for the police, one last time before gunning his car. (4) Party, Party, Party, until the night before a test. This typical student portrays the technique of the "night before cramming." (5) You have a customer Brett? The Cinema Theater is a big part of the nights activities. Whether it's selling tickets, watching the movie, or ushering, it's always alot of fun.

O.E.: Learning to Work for a Grade

(1) Office Education under the coordination of Mrs. Alver Clark, is open to all Seniors, including boys for the first time. One year of typing is required, and bookkeeping and shorthand are preferred. The students put in 15 hours a week minimum, and work in several Pittsburg offices. Three hours credit is earned for O.E.: one hour for on the job training and two hours of classroom instruction. Half of the class period is spent on assignments to help the students learn trades to be used on the job. O.E., now in its fourth year is considered by Mrs. Clark as the "cap stone" of career education, which just this year is being organized. By taking this class the students gain experience which will help them in their career choices.

1973-74 Marching Dragons squads were really out to beat the bands in 73. The Squads participated in special camps during the summer helping to make their performances better than ever. Without the Drum Major the band would be lost to them one whistle is worth a thousand words. Thanks to the sign carriers the band begins with everyone knowing who marching. The Dragon Mascot, twirlers, flags and Banner squads all keep the fans entertained and keep watchful eyes off the band's mistakes.

(1) Twirlers: Bette Walker, Denise Fisher, Eva Casella, Sherri Bray, Chystal Blancett, Maggy Murry, Barbara Eagan. (2) Flags: Susie Webb, Janet Casella, Cathy Tannehill, Tracy Hurst, Roxanne Pearson, Sherri Frank, Lori Herman, Kristy Torbett. OPP. Ha! You'll Think Busy . . .

Since it began in April, 1973, this yearbook represents over a year's work by sixteen students. Editor Rhonda Garman, Assistant Editor Dianne Daugherty, and seven staff members attended a workshop in Lindsborg, Kansas in early August to prepare for making the book. It was put together with the "real" student in mind, to show what the usual and unusual high school life is like.

“We Bring You the News”

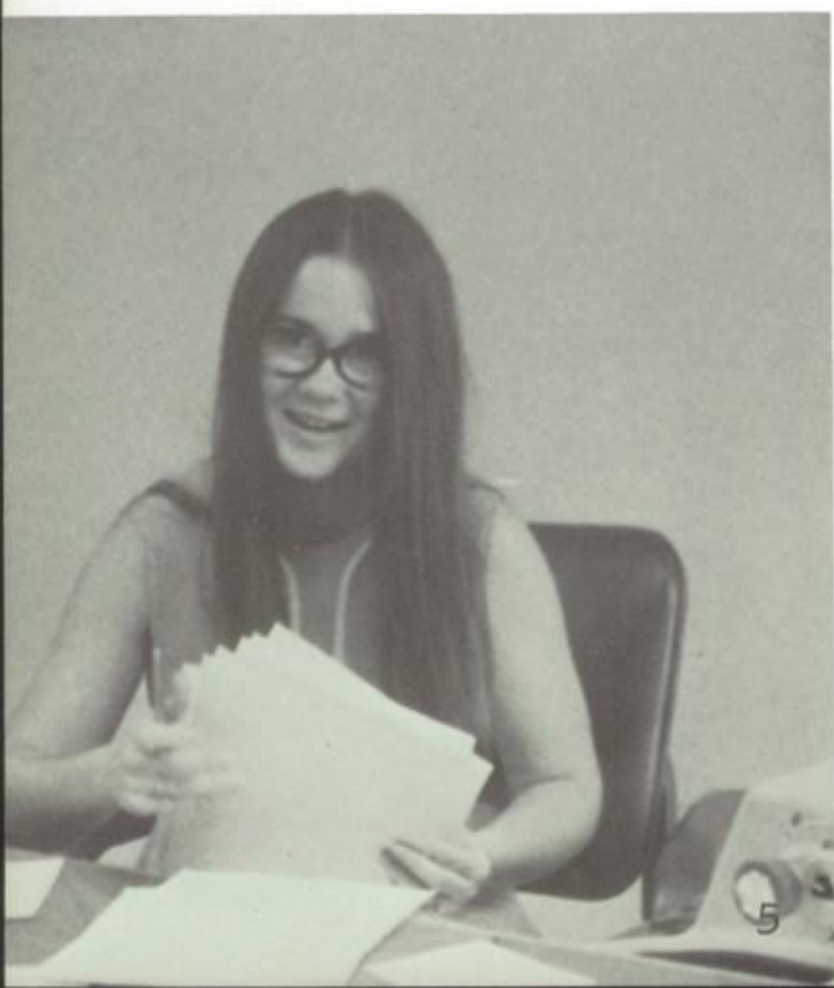

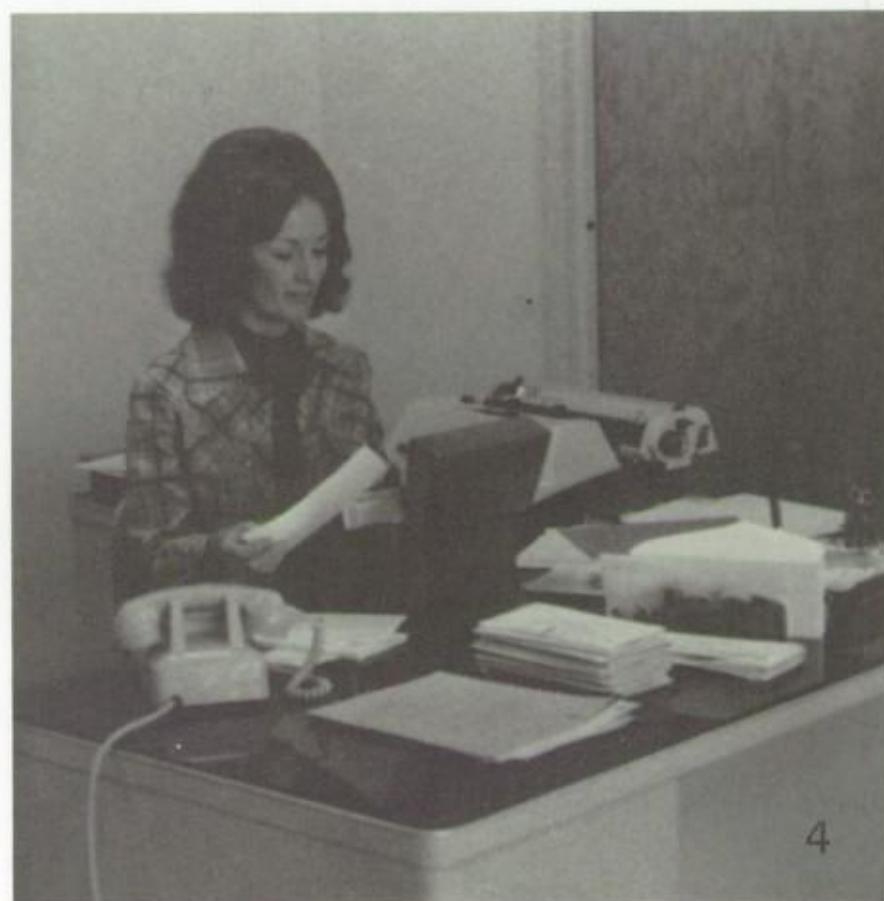

(1) Bret Stacy, photographer Greg Fincher, Editor Marilyn Heitz and Janice Hudson work on various aspects of producing a newspaper. (2) Sheri Frank and Robert Bettiga work in the darkroom on pictures for the next issue. (3) Heather Kelly and Pam Ward check the filing cabinet while putting away Booster copy. (4) Cherrie Harris, Deni Morris and Janice Bartley check the dictionary for spelling. We wouldn't want any misspelled words, would we? (5) Nancy Edwards, Judy Gamble, Joe Grisolano and Bill Anderson keep busy writing assigned stories.

Priority Over Pittsburg's Pupils,

"I believe school keeps me thinking young because I don't think of myself as being as old as I am. Students are, in general, wonderful people. I believe they have what it takes to meet successfully the challenges of their future. Life is wonderful! You get out of life what you give to it!" says Mr. Harold Hardy, principal at the high school. In his spare time, Mr. Hardy enjoys clock making, golf, and refinishing old furniture.

"I enjoy school life very much...we have our problems, but we have many good things that offset these. Most students have a good attitude toward school and school activities. Working with the faculty is very interesting. Summing it all up... I believe that high school years are the most important in a student's life," replied Mr. Jim Morey, when asked for a comment on kids, school, etc. Mr. Morey is a Senior High and Roosevelt Jr. High Administrator. He likes to play golf, bridge, and read.

the Top Administrators.

DR. JACK L. REED
Superintendent of Schools

"I'm an outdoors man, I love spectator sports such as football and basketball," comments Dr. Jack Reed, Superintendent of Schools. He also enjoys spending time with his four sons skiing and hunting. But, not all Dr. Reed's time is spent in the outdoors. As Superintendent, he is the top administrator working between the schools and the board to coordinate programs and ideas. When asked about life, school, kids Mr. Reed replied, "Life has to do with school and kids, it's where everything starts and stops."

Antiqueing is one of Mr. David Huffman, Assistant Superintendent's, favorite hobbies. He also enjoys canoeing and camping with his wife and children. Asked about life and school he replied, "I like kids; you have to to be an educator. I've been in school all my life, from the time I started kindergarten, and I'm still going."

DAVID L. HUFFMAN
Assistant Superintendent of Schools

Continuing Our Education, . . .

Fishing, hunting, and hiking are hobbies of Mr. Norman Kru-sic, teacher of new art mini courses such as, ceramics and jewelry.

Mrs. Faye Smith will make "no comment" on life, but she says the kids are really "far out." She enjoys sewing and just doing fun things. A new teacher at PHS this year, Mrs. Smith teaches Composition I and II, science fiction, and nonfiction, dialects, and free reading.

Mrs. Joetta Gardner keeps herself busy in the office as high school secretary.

Mr. Galen Kabance, Guidance Counselor at PHS, shares guidance work with Mr. Grisolano. Their office is always busy, especially around graduation.

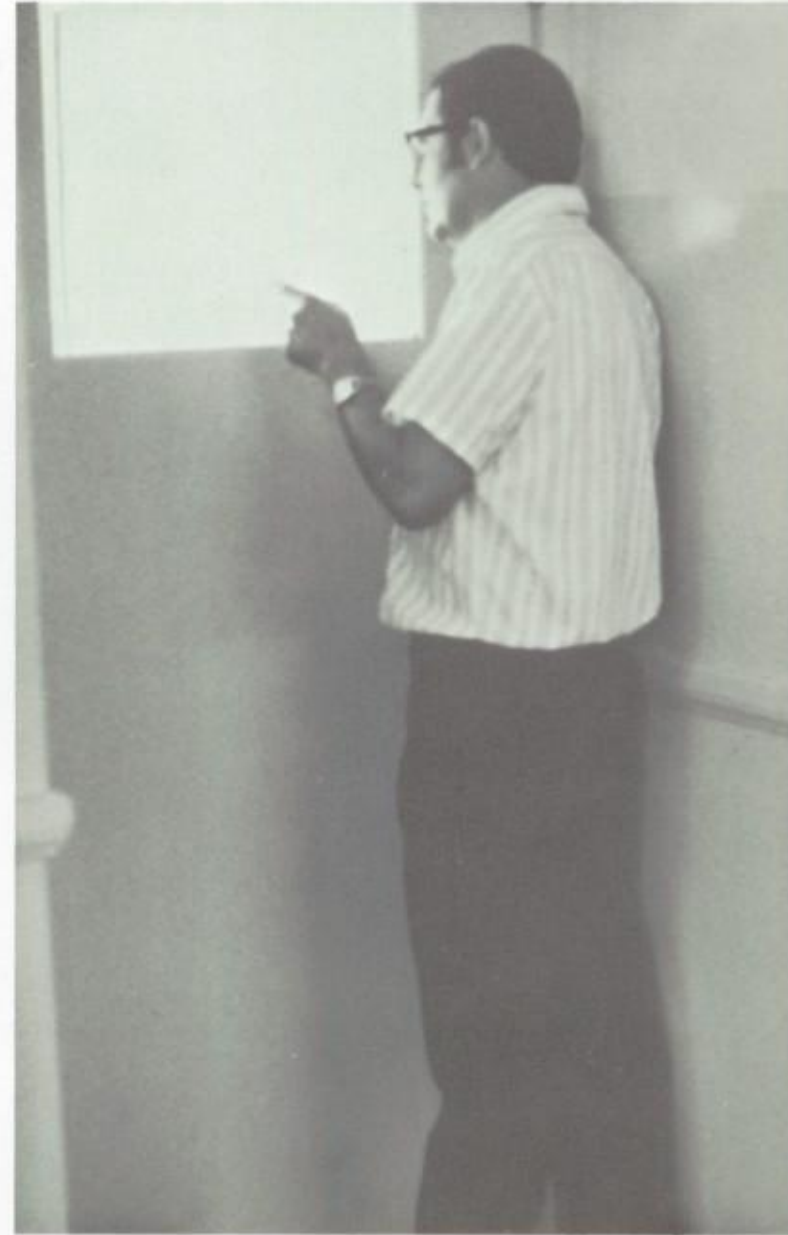

Mr. Dan Tewell, public speaking, Hello Out There, and vocabulary and speed reading teacher at Pittsburgh High School, thinks that PHS is the "Greatest high school." Mr. Tewell enjoys golf, reading, watching football, basketball, and girls and vacations and trips. He is the coach of the golf team and sponsors the Lawrence Welk fan club.

... Or At Least Trying!

Bill Hanson, American Problems teacher at our school, enjoys golf, tennis, and music when he's not busy with Cross Country, Basketball, and F.C.A. Mr. Hanson's comment was, "once is not enough, but twice is ridiculous. Pass the first time."

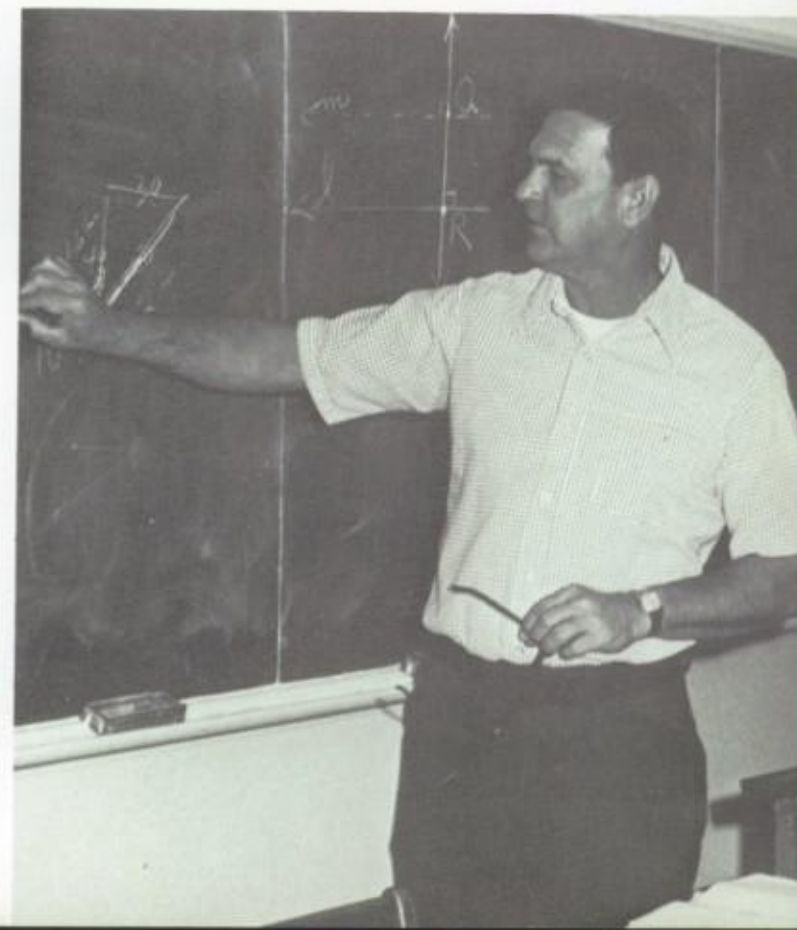

Golf, fishing, and stamp and coin collecting are the hobbies of Jack Grisolano. Mr. Grisolano is a counselor and sophomore class sponsor. He likes Pittsburg High School and the people associated with it.

"I think the PHS students are the greatest," says Ms. Eleanor Martin, guidance secretary. Bridge and golf are enjoyed by Mrs. Martin in her spare time.

Hunting, fishing, and pool are favorite pastimes of Mr. Charles Watt. Besides teaching geometry, algebra II, and trigonometry, Mr. Watt is kept real busy sponsoring the senior class! When asked for a comment on school, life, and kids, he replied, "Have fun while you're in high school. It's the best time of your life and it's over before you realize it. Believe it Seniors?"

Their Success, Our Success:

Mrs. Emerson is also a new teacher at PHS this year. Besides teaching English mini courses, her busy schedule includes, assistant pep club sponsor, and such hobbies as reading, fishing, traveling, and watching basketball and softball. Mrs. Emerson has always been enthusiastic about learning and living, and says she feels sorry for those who simply exist.

"I feel that SCHOOL is KIDS, and KIDS are LIFE," says Mr. Larry B. Mills, typing I and personal typing teacher. Although Mr. Mills is not sponsoring any organizations this year, he is active in tennis, basketball, and enjoys music.

Mr. Larry Elliot has been a Graphic Arts teacher at PHS for three years. Although he sponsors no activities, Mr. Elliot is kept busy with his hobbies, which include, photography, cabinet making, carpentry, and gardening. He feels that life is what you make it; if you want it to be dull, it doesn't take much effort.

"After 17 years at PHS, this seems to be the best year yet! My classes and schedule are great!" This, from Max Struble, study hall, Chemistry, and physics instructor. Mr. Struble enjoys Hi-Fi Stereo recording, "square music," and fixing things.

One In the Same

Librarian, Mr. William J. Pfannenstiel's hobbies include hiking, camping, and jogging. He sponsors the Young Librarians' Club at Pittsburg High School.

Mr. Jesse K. Sutton's comment on school, life, kids, etc., was merely, "Great". Auto Mechanics, machinshop, and Junior Class Sponsor, take up most of the school day for Mr. Sutton. Horseback riding and spending time at the lake are some of his favorite pastimes.

"To know is no less than to feel." This, contributed by Ruth Bloomcamp, as a comment on kids, school, etc. "This," she feels, "applies most aptly to competitive speech, which includes my entire teaching area. My students are creative, imaginative, and on the move for a good beginning and a great school year." Antiques and collectibles hold a special interest for Mrs. Bloomcamp in her free time, while during school, Novice Debate, Drama I and II, Debate Experienced, and Forensics keep her busy. Also, she sponsors Debate and Drama Club.

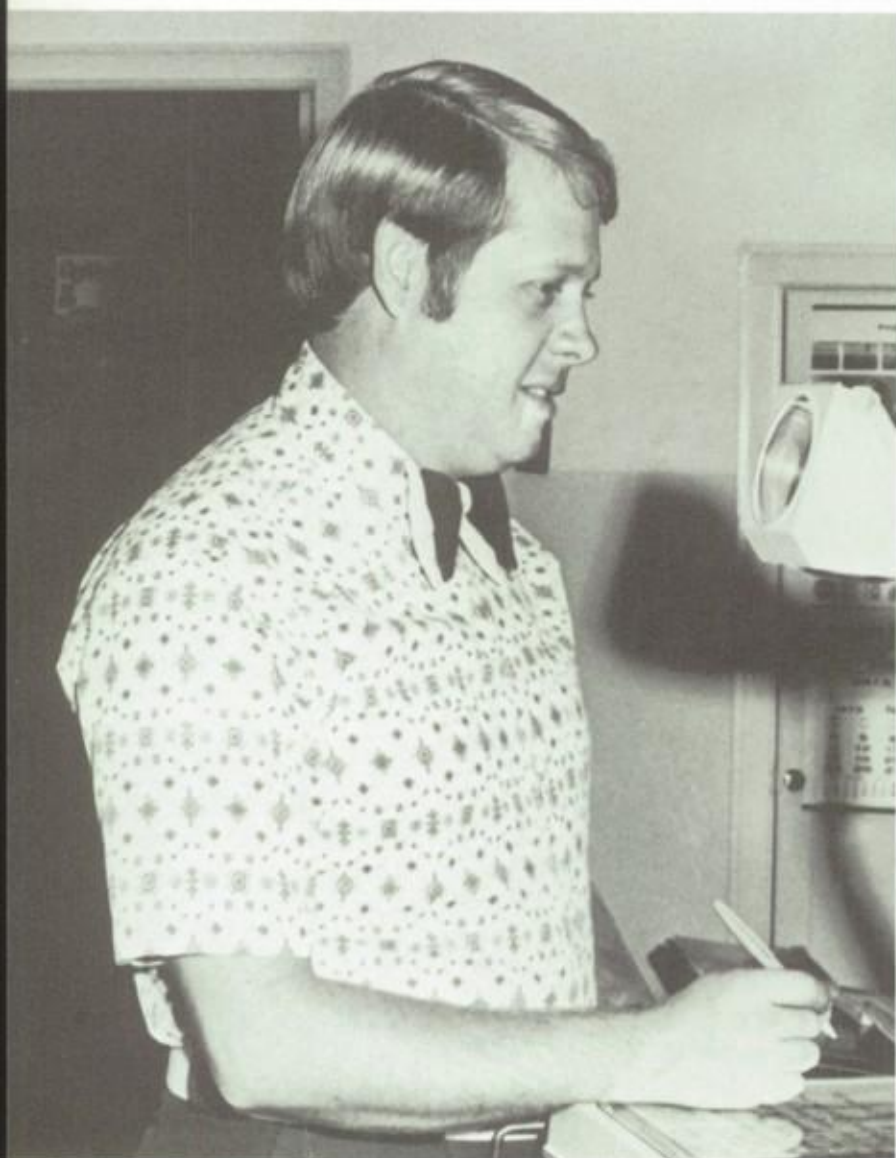

Ernest Nelson, Biology teacher and Co-sponsor of the Junior Class, thinks "Teaching is a great challenge."

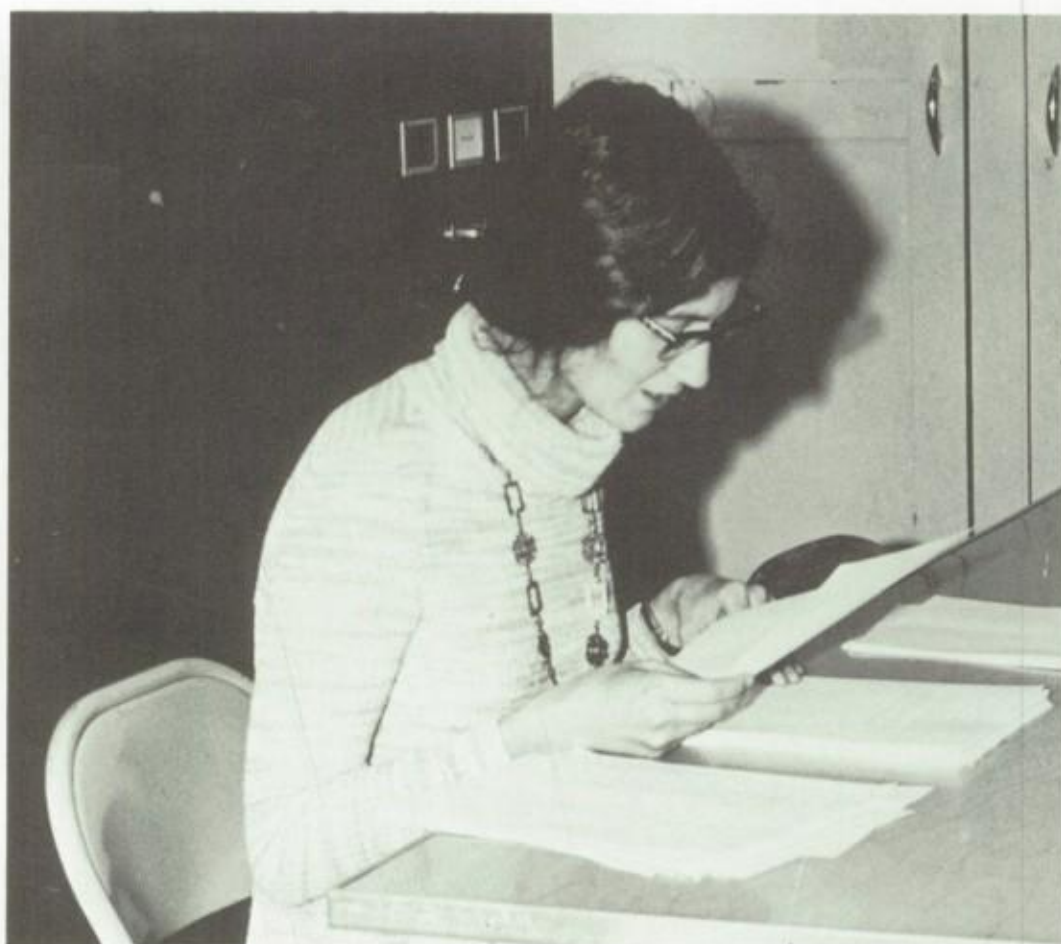

American History, World History and American Problems, are courses taught by Donna Watson, at Pittsburg High School. Miss Watson sponsors Student Council. Some of her interests include reading, sports, music, and travel. Commented Miss Watson, "Early in my life I developed an interest in history which has continued to the present. In itself, the study of people, events, and civilization of the past is fascinating and enjoyable. However, even more importantly, the study of history assists a person in understanding himself and other persons. Through history, man, in his environment, and an understanding of what values are really important. Hopefully, through teaching of history, to PHS students, I can convey ideas that will assist them in the development of their philosophy of life."

Helping Students Grow

Water skiing, hunting, and fishing, are the hobbies enjoyed by Allen Jameson. The largest part of Mr. Jameson's day is spent teaching trigonometry, analytical geometry, Algebra II, and career math. He's an assistant football coach, and thinks "It's really fun to teach at PHS." When asked for a comment kids, school, life, etc., Mr. Jameson replied, "Don't walk so fast, you can't smell the flowers."

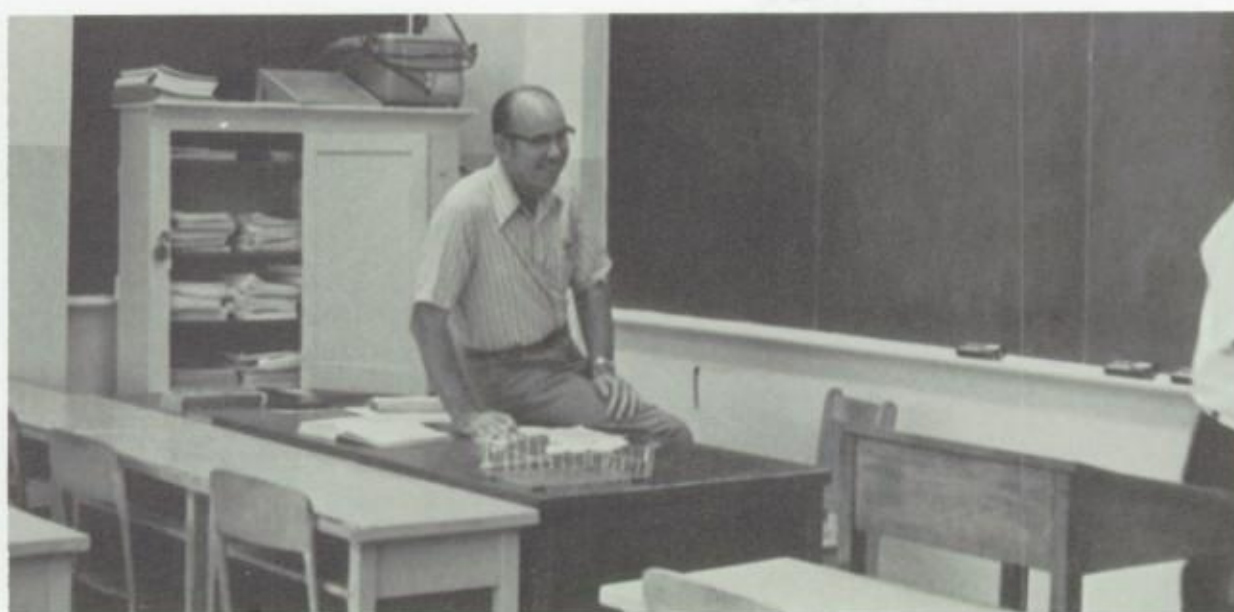

"Those who study history are not doomed to repeat it. Not only the grandeur and frailty of man are revealed by the past, but also the possibility of forming and shaping an authentically human and just society. As a teacher, I hope to help build better persons. To work with the young on a one-to-one basis, to encourage the talents of each individual, to help each student to formulate, critically examine, and defend his or her convictions is in itself, both the reward and challenge of the high school teacher." This, from Frances McGrath, American History and American Problems teacher at PHS. Her idea of a perfect vacation is "tenting, way off in the middle of the Rocky Mountains with my family." Camping, gardening, reading, and bicycling are enjoyed by Mrs. McGrath.

Water skiing, hunting, and fishing, were given as hobbies by Joe Bournonville, health education instructor at PHS. Assistant football coach, the job of handling linebackers and wide receivers falls on his shoulders. Mr. Bournonville commented, "I enjoy being around kids. They live their lives to the fullest, enjoying each day as it comes and not worrying about tomorrow. Kids are not afraid to show their emotions; they laugh when they are happy and cry when they are sad. That's good!"

Intellectually And Emotionally

Mr. Lawrence Bowyer, accounting, business mathematics, and typing II teacher at PHS, likes to spend his extra time fishing or refinishing furniture. Mr. Bowyer is a sponsor of the sophomore class.

"The only difference between kids and adults is AGE. School is fine, and life is worth living." This was the comment made by Miss Dortha Wallace, shorthand I and II, and typewriting I and II teacher at PHS. Miss Wallace is a sponsor of the junior class and enjoys fishing in her spare time.

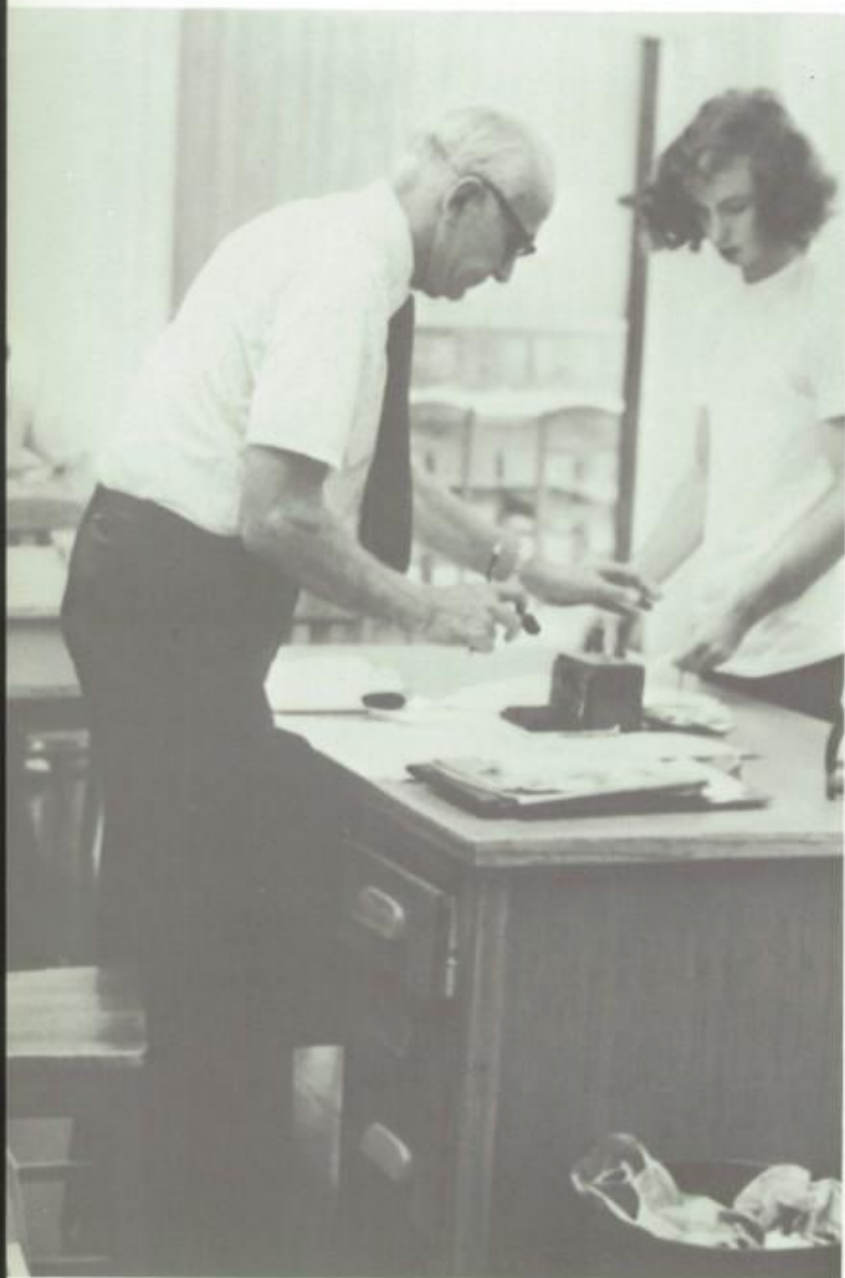

Mrs. Naomi Farabi, Language Arts teacher, attends all sports, reads, and enjoys traveling. When asked for a statement on school, life, kids, etc., Mrs. Farabi said, "I think the students at PHS have good manners and are well behaved. Students like for the teacher to be fair and understanding. We have very few problems."

Mrs. Susan Miller, English mini courses teacher, and chess club sponsor, has many spare time activities, but little spare time. They include, horseback riding, sewing, leatherwork, camping, and "old timey" things. When asked for a comment on school, life, etc., Mrs. Miller replied, "Ann Frank said it, 'It's really a wonder I haven't dropped all my ideals, because they seem so absurd and impossible to carry out. Yet, I keep them because in spite of everything, I still believe that people are really good at heart.'"

They Help Us . . .

Alver Clark, Secretarial Procedures and Office Education teacher, sponsors the sophomore class and is involved with Office Education Association Club. Mrs. Clark enjoys reading, camping, and hopes to have more time to travel extensively, perhaps a cruise in '74. She comments, "we have a fine group of students at PHS this year, and that she is happy to have a part in their training for life after graduation."

Director of Athletics and study hall supervisor, are the duties of Mr. Martin Rohde, at Pittsburg High. Traveling, reading, sports, are favorite pastimes of his. When asked to comment on school, life, kids, etc., Mr. Rohde replied, "Pittsburg High School has always ranked high scholastically and in all activities. I am convinced we will continue to keep our standards high and retain or surpass the outstanding record we have established in the past."

Mary Elwood, new instructor at PHS, keeps busy teaching French and Spanish classes. Some of Mrs. Elwood's hobbies are, reading, and sewing. When asked for a comment on school, kids, and life, she replied, "schools are getting better. Kids are people, and I love people. Life; very, very special."

Hunting and fishing are hobbies enjoyed, in his spare time, by Lynn Stalnaker, while Wood I, Wood Utilization, and General Industrial Processes, take up time during the school day. Commented Mr. Stalnaker, "I feel like the kids today have to live in a world where society places much more pressure on them than they did ten years ago. Our world functions at a very rapid pace."

Help Others

Sponsoring Cheerleaders, Pep Club, Senior Lifesaving and PEL is Frances Samuels. Mrs. Samuels is girl's Physical Education teacher and volleyball and track coach. She enjoys bowling, tennis, gardening, swimming and cooking.

Replied Mrs. Samuels, when asked for a comment for the yearbook, "Teaching just girls, my concern and feelings are toward teaching ALL GIRLS the value of carry-over sports that they will use now and after graduation, such as golf, tennis and other individual sports. These girls should also have the opportunity for competing against other schools in sports."

Janet Dalton, Home Ec I and II, and Family Living teacher at PHS enjoys in her spare time sewing, boating, skiing and especially rose gardening. Mrs. Dalton is the sponsor of Future Homemakers of America.

Mrs. Dalton stated she felt proud that her sons attended PHS because it is an excellent educational institution.

Very much a person who enjoys staying home and relaxing, Larry Garman, Physical Education instructor at PHS reads and plays golf to fill his spare time. Our football and track coach, when asked for a comment on school and the students, said, "This school year had a very smooth beginning. I believe our students at PHS have some very definite goals in mind and they are trying very hard to attain these goals."

Working in the yard, fishing, and golfing are a few of Mr. Bob Harder's hobbies, but mainly he enjoys being with his family.

Subjects among his busy schedule include PHS Marching Dragons, symphonic band, concert band, instrumental ensembles, stage band, instrumental solos, and pep band.

Mr. Harder feels the music department is growing in quality and quantity, and is looking forward to a fanatic educational trip to Washington, D.C. this spring.

Teachers Advocate Integrity

Mary Hiner enjoys her job in the office because it allows her to work around the students. Mrs. Hiner enjoys golf and bowling when she's not busy being secretary-treasurer for the high school office. She's glad to see more sports offered for girls, especially competitive volleyball and track.

Mr. Danny Shoemake, Special Education, Level IV instructor at PHS enjoys restoring antique cars and bowling in his spare time. When asked for a comment on school, kids, life, etc..., he replied, "School years can be the most profitable of one's life depending upon what is invested. Life only has meaning to those who have goals."

Our library assistant at PHS is Mrs. Thelma Thompson. When asked for a comment on school kids or life, she replied, "Working with young folks keeps one young in spirit. They are so interesting."

Reading, crafts and traveling are some of Mrs. Thompson's hobbies.

Jean Potter and Betty Scott

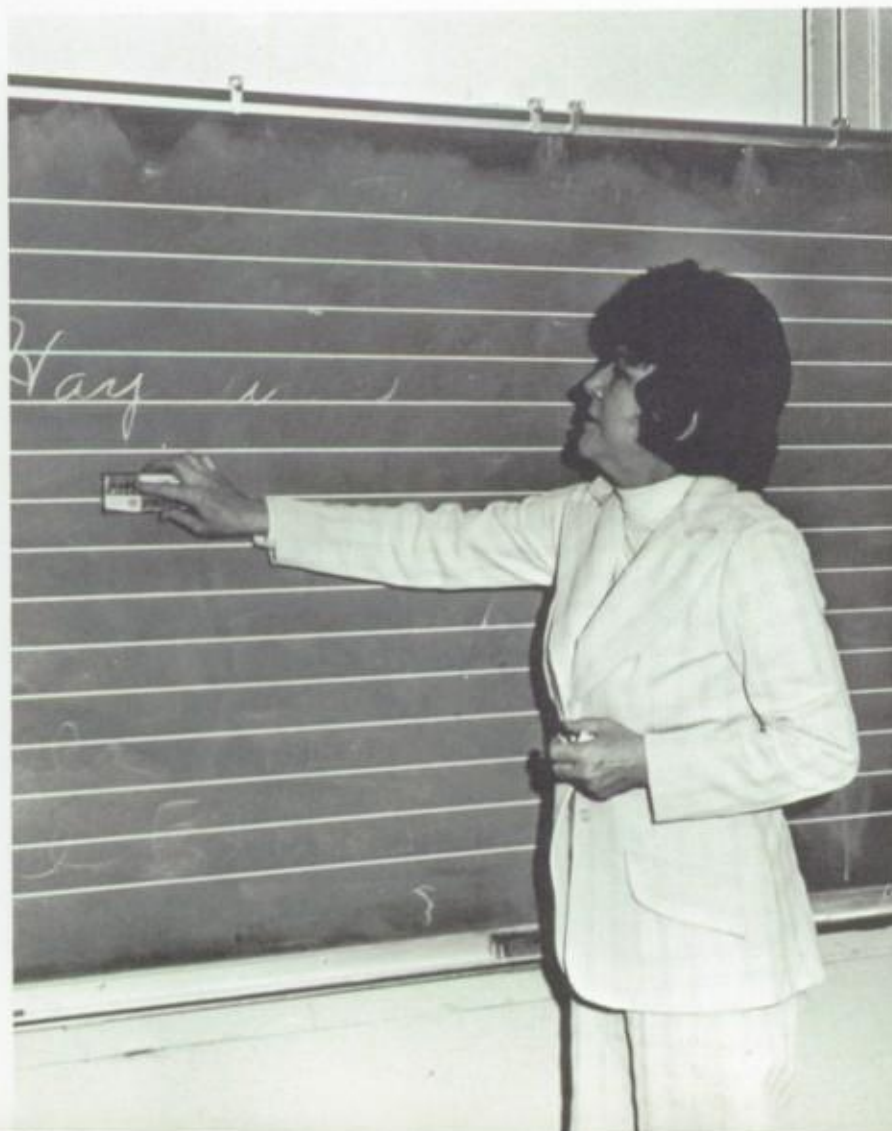

And Ingenuity

"Emerson believed in the infinitude of man. We believe in the infinitude of students," says Mrs. Marjory Sharp, teacher of English mini courses and sponsor of the sophomore class. Some of Mrs. Sharp's hobbies are reading, writing, camping, swimming, cooking, and origami.

Carmen Swafford, Spanish and Latin instructor, enjoys reading, short wave radio, and travel. Spanish Club and Latin Club are the activities sponsored by Mrs. Swafford.

Mrs. Elaine Bryant, senior class sponsor, and teacher of the English mini courses, likes reading, bicycle riding, collecting music boxes, and interior decorating. She feels that "Since student and teacher spend so much time together, I only hope that my students enjoy sharing their lives with me as I do with them."

John Harry replied, "The ability to communicate is important to everyone," when asked to comment on school, life, etc.,...

Along with instructing English mini courses, yearbook and newspaper, Mr. Harry sponsors Quill and Scroll. Fishing is a hobby of his.

Mrs. Lorene Dougherty, Speech Clinician and therapist, when asked for her comments on school, kids, and life, etc...replies, "To quote John Kennedy 'Ask not what my country can do for me but what I can do for my country.' If only everyone would ask what can I do for my school, country and fellowman we would be a rich happy people and nation."

People Working Together

Mr. Danny Nance, PE and drafting instructor, whose hobbies include woodworking. Supplied by Mr. Nance, "Learn to enjoy school and you will learn to enjoy life."

Cooking, sewing, and traveling are a few of the hobbies Miss Betty Bachtel enjoys. Besides teaching American history, she is a senior class sponsor. Miss Bachtel feels is what you make of it. "If you become interested in your work, family life, and community, life will be worth living."

Mr. Oscar Birt, CIT Coordinator

During the school days, Mrs. Ruth Short can be found teaching Russian I and II, and French II and III. She also sponsors Russian and French clubs. When Mrs. Short isn't busy, she enjoys golfing, fishing.

Mr. James Gough is the Vocal Music Instructor for PHS.

Diary,

Friday, December 21

ACT tests! What a farce! I actually got up at 15 til 7:00 the day of the Xmas dance to take a test!! Then spent the whole day at the gym decorating. Anyway, the pep club out did themselves this year. "Silver Bells" was beautiful and the music was great!

Played Jola in basketball the 18th. Strange game: no cheerleaders! Got suspended til January 11th. Guess rules really weren't made to be broken!

Energy crisis or not, I'm sick of freezing in one room and suffocating in another. And these dark halls are bad! You never know what's coming at you.

Eleven days of well deserved rest! Thank goodness for Xmas vacation.

Going into a mid-season tournament with a 6-3 record the Dragons captured the 2nd place trophy at the Emporia Invitational, bowing only to the Atchinson Redmen in the finals. Following the mid-season break, the varsity got back on their winning track and closed out the season in typical Dragon form . . . winning.

(1) Donnie tips in another basket. (2) Randy Turnbull comes down with a rebound. (3) Somewhere in the middle of all those long-legged dudes in tennis shoes is Coach Hanson giving last minute instructions. (4) Pregame activities end with the players centered at midcourt and the cheerleaders around them. (5) John Oldham and other Grange members say Hi! (6) 6'7" center Brian Jones goes up and over with a classic jump shot. (7) Don Free sprints down court to set up two points. (8) Brian Jones uses his height to good advantage as he goes above all opponents to score. (9) Lucky # 13 Don Free goes high to put in a two-pointer against Iola. (1) The pep band adds alot of excitement to the games.

Dragons Climax Action-Packed

(1) During first quarter action against Columbus Brian Jones is at the free-throw line. The Dragons got off to a slow start as the scoreboard indicates but came on to win the game in a see-saw battle. (2) Brian Jones shows his defensive wizardry here as he goes high to hassle a Coffeyville player during a two point try. Steve Thomas moves into rebounding position. (3) During the homecoming contest against Fort Scott Donnie Free and Fort Scott hot-shot Chipper Young are caught in a picture of basketball excellence. (4) Bill Walker lets go a freethrow as David Eichhorn and Don Free ready themselves for the rebound. This shot took place during first round action at the tournament in Emporia against the host team. (5) David Eichhorn makes a move toward the basket against arch-rival Columbus. (6) Randy Turnbull makes a fantastic defensive play as he blocks an attempted shot by a Coffeyville player. Bill Walker and Don Free move in for the rebound.

Season 10-8

Mary Ellen Pogson Reigns As 1974 Coronation Queen

(1) Mary Ellen Pogson sitting pretty. (2) Abby, Johnie, Debbie, Diane, Michelle and Mary Ellen were the six candidates for Homecoming. Say cheese everybody! (3) Michelle, Mary Ellen, and Abby with their escorts Donnie Free, Jeff Goble and Brian Jones. (4) A look of surprise is on Mary Ellen's face as she is being crowned Homecoming Queen by sweetheart Jeff Goble at the Ft. Scott-Pittsburg game on February 8th, 1974. Pittsburg won the game by a score of 68-64. (5) Diana Hurt, Debbie Barley and Johnie Madison were our ladies-in-waiting. (6) Abby Wilson, senior, was second attendant. (7) Michelle O'Connell, senior, was first attendant.

Basketball Provides Exercise And

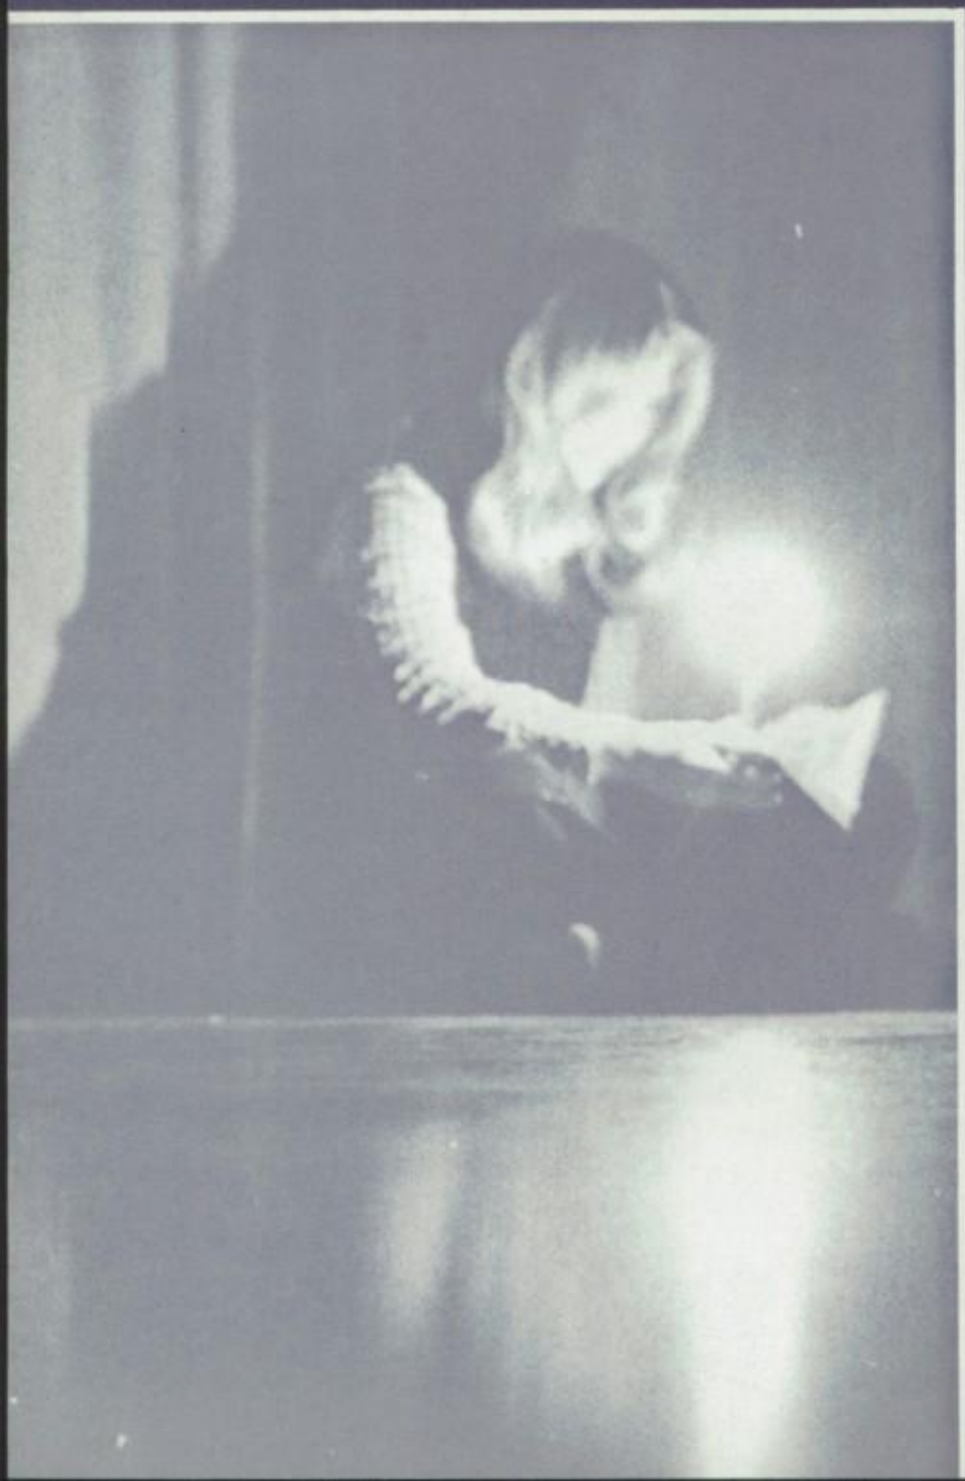

As shown on these two pages, the boys seem to have a good time while playing Intramural Basketball. There's not only fun on the court but in the locker room too! Chris Barnett and David Giffin stand admiringly behind the same ol' towels that our parents used generations ago.

Entertainment for Non-Lettermen

... And Then There Was the Energy Crisis

(1) A very familiar site shows how severe the energy crisis has become. (2) Remember when people used to do everything by candlelight? (3) They parked to save gas! (4) The gas shortage doesn't seem to affect us all; what could be more fun than sitting in front of a crackling fire? Except maybe someone to sit in front of the fire with.

Along with the cool days and even cooler nights of autumn came the reality and evidence of the shortage of gasoline. President Nixon advised the American people to slow down on the overconsumption of natural resources. He asked us not to exceed 50 m.p.h. on the highway, to lower our temperatures to 68 degrees, and to reduce needless use of electricity. As a result we bought long underwear, more blankets and prepared ourselves for a long winter. Most gas stations were closed on Sundays and more people were riding bicycles. The Christmas lights downtown were turned off at 9:00 p.m. instead of the usual 11:00 p.m. time. And even at P.H.S. we tried to do our part by turning off every other hall light and lowering the temperature so that many kids sat through class with their coats and mittens on.

(1) Joe Bournonville gives his yearly health report using Kirby McCullough for his guinea pig. Mr. Bournonville attaches the equipment to Kirby with masking tape, while Kirby stands amazed. (2) Ralph Taylor displays his talent, while sitting behind a trap set in the P.H.S. bandroom. Ralph represented P.H.S. this summer in the Lions State Band. (3) Maggie Murry is showing us some of her gymnastic talents, which shows how crazy she is. You know, not just everybody hangs by their knees! Maggie constantly has high spirits and is willing to do almost anything she can get a good laugh out of! This is a big part of her individuality. (4) No matter how much individuality a person has, no one should think of them as being weird. Chris Stice shows her school spirit, with "Hats off to the Dragons," and "Stomp the Scotties," by wearing this apparel. (5) Each person has a little individuality within them. But with Paula Postai's individuality is clear through. She has a way with kindness, peacefulness, and understanding others. Paula shows us one of her many talents, as she paints in her Art class.

"Silver Bells"

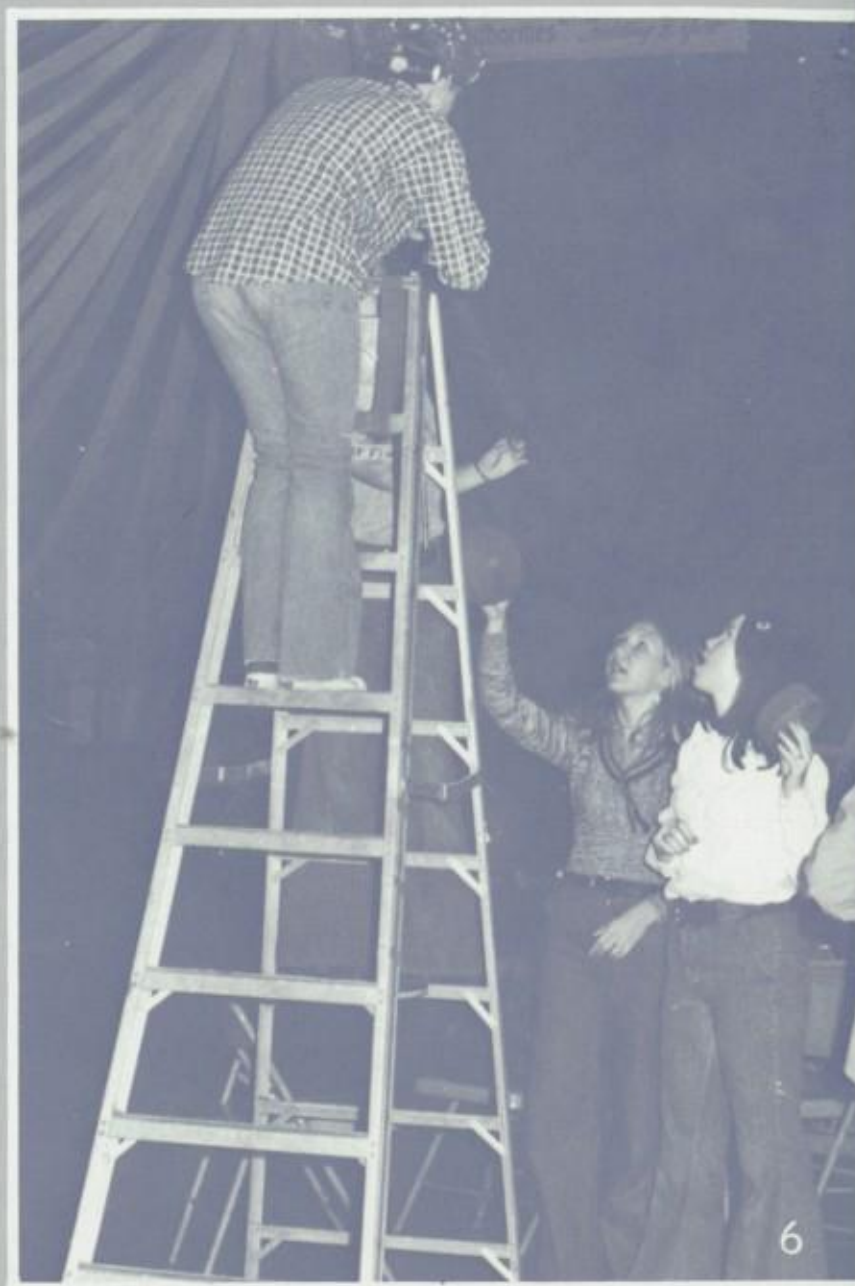

Christmas Dance Has Record Crowd,

(1) A variety of people and costumes were seen at the annual, pep club sponsored Snowball, held December 8, in the John L. England gymnasium. (2) The band, "Another Fine Mess" kept everyone up dancing or just listening to the sweet sounds being delivered. With the acoustics so bad in the gym, all you could do was dance or listen to the music. Talking was definitely out except during breaks! (3) Mary Ellen Pogson, Jeff Goble and Meg Nettels exhibit the clothing trend: girls wore anything and everything, while guys were in the spotlight in baggies, bow ties, stacked shoes, and seal skin jackets. (4) Piney Cobb and Ed Riley were just one of the many steady couples to enjoy the festive evening. (5) The refreshment table was everyone's favorite place! (6) Pep club members spent all day Saturday readying the blue and silver decorated paradise.

French Club —

Imported Perfume, Pollywogs, Chilli:

The PHS French Club got off to a roaring start by selling pollywogs, French perfume, hot chocolat at noon, and tickets to their annual Chili Supper to finance a trip to Kansas City to see the French play "Le Roi Se Meurt" by Ionesco and eat at a French restaurant. The club also saw a series of French films throughout the year and did a radio show on French life. To celebrate the holidays, students bake Buche de Noel, a French cake. Dr. Freiburger, from KSC, spoke to the members who are planning to visit France about his summer program.

"All Those In Favor Say . . ."

Student Council officers, Chris Barnett, vice president, John Nettels, president, and Pam Ward, secretary-treasurer, take time during one of their Tuesday meetings to give us a quick smile.

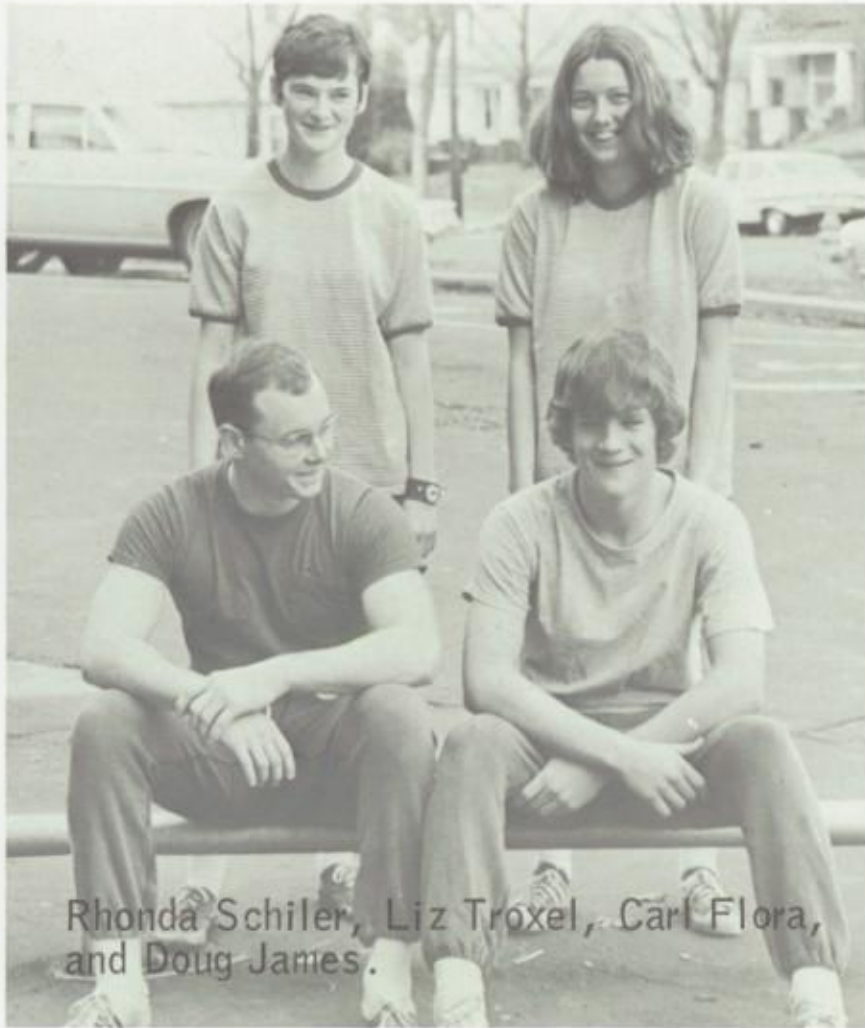

Poor Kirby! No matter what the circumstances are, he tries to get as much in as he possibly can. When is that boy going to learn?

Meetings of this year's student council were held on Tuesdays at activity period. Representatives were elected every nine weeks due to the changing of classes.

“When We Say Run, We Mean It!”

Being a P.E. Leader is an easy A, a good way to keep physically fit during a sometimes lazy senior year and all sorts of fun! This year, there were 10 girls under Frances Samuels, 10 boys under Larry Garman and 2 boys for Danny Nances' 6TH hour class. These students led exercises, refereed games and became instant experts on everything from flag football to tumbling! But, most of all, they kept alot of sophomores and juniors in shape with endless laps and jumping jacks, and when they said run, they meant it.

One Student, 1/2 Day Of School

Working over 1080 hours in school and on the job during the school year, students in C.I.T. prepare for the leadership of the world of work. The class divides their time into a direct and an indirect hour. The direct hour is also the contract hour, or where time is spent doing research in his occupation. The indirect hour is spent in class discussion. All are members of V.I.C.A. the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. Unity is strong with C.I.T. members and special events are held at Halloween, Christmas, and one in January with the employers at a appreciation banquet. The expense of these events are paid by the selling of candy, candles, and wreaths.

(1) Lavon Smith is making the rounds at Sunset Manor. (2) The Halloween Party is a big event for C.I.T. people. (3) Debbie Evans is studying at the home of C.I.T. (4) Rick Ham is the shoe expert at Penny's. (5) Penny's is also the employer of Debbie Swartz who is seen here putting luggage on the racks. (6) Joe Grisalono is weighing freight at American Electric. (7) Fixing flats is only one of Larry Ambercrombie's jobs at Paul Gill's Phillips 66 station. (8) Checking a want book for automotive parts, Steve Puckett and employer Jim Belew look with intent. (9) Steve Buford employed by Pittsburg Automotive is caught at a rare moment...working. (10) Steve Lane's working hard for True Value in the Freight department. (11) The picture says it all for Mark Tremain.

(5) Hitting your thumb and towering heights are only a few of the obstacles Jack Smith has to overcome when working on Ernie Hartman's construction crew. (6) Checking the files for information is a part of Jeri Handshy's job.

"The Quiet Life of a Librarian . . ."

"This is one club that really isn't a club," says Mr. William Pfannenstiel. It was decided early in the year not to have an actual club, but to meet informally and discuss the many aspects of operating a library. Meeting primarily on the first and third Mondays of each month, there are no officers, only the rule of the student assistants.

(1) "Maning" the counter these four Cindy Parrish, Deena Melton, Brenda Phillips, and Greg Turner are the ones to see to check out a book. (2) The card catalog is the place to check for books when teachers assign reports. Phyllis Lamborn, Linda Williams and Beverly Munsel are experts. (3) The encyclopedia's are the handiest reference books. Debbie Davidson is looking for the information she needs. (4) Many reference books are available, Lloyd Sixkiller, Linda Plummer and Gusina Costulis know how to make the best use of them.

(4) Mark Pauley, John Nettels, Mark Matlock, and Melinda Waid display their first and second place trophies won in Baxter Springs. (5) Dan Johnson, Tami Sullinger, Mitch Hull and Kirby McCullough are shown with one of the trophies PHS won at the Baxter Springs tournament. (6) Dan Johnson and Tami Sullinger took second place at the Baxter Springs tournament in October. (7) At Missouri Southern college, Sarah Nettels and Kaye Hemmens placed second in the womens novice division.

(1) Mrs. Ruth Bloomcamp, director of Debate and Drama at PHS was awarded the Diamond Award from the National Forensic League. For the award, a point total of 1,000 is necessary. Mrs. Bloomcamp accumulated 1,560 points.

Undaunted, It's Back!

Mixing fun with useful services was the goal of Y-Teens. After being excluded from the activities last year, the organization was pulled together again. Initiation of officers and members took place in one of the earliest meetings. Later, plans for numerous projects, programs and just plain fun expanded while service projects were launched with determination and concern. After a successful year, it seems last year's absence of Y-Teens only served to strengthen the organization.

(1) Y-Teens officers are: Laura Roberts, Co. Pres.; Marilyn Heitz, Sec.; Sherry Allmon, Tres.; Denise Parks, Co. Pres.; Debbie McCalm, Chairman of Service Committee; Janie Bartly, and Susan Briggs, Program Committee; Deana Colton, Song Leader; Kathy Margrave, Chairman of Fellowship and Games Committee. (2) The halls of Medicalodge were filled with Christmas Carols by Y-Teens members. (4) It's not always the members who add life to the meetings, but also the sponsors, as Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Sharp readily show.

We Don't Litter — We Care!

(1) Ecology Club members are: Tony Brown, Jim Moody, Mrs. Miller, Kim Meyer, Sheryl Hight, Kit Hood, Julie Sharshal, Rusty Mosburg, Danny Johnson, Lisa Shelton, Diana Hurt, Carol Robb, Dianna McQuade, Janice Riley, Sherry Brown, Joyce Foster, Liz Chambers, Rick Evans, Steve Hart, Kathy Holt, Chuck Maiseroulle, Robin

Lane, Karen Hoffman, Crystal Mathis, Bart Bartelli, Linda Hahnemann. (2) Officers are: Julie Sharshal, Pres.; Danny Johnson, Vice Pres.; Mrs. Miller, Sponsor, not pictured Paula Postai, Sec. Tres. (3) We're not really trashmen, and we don't enjoy this, but if your going to litter, we'll pick it up.

Diary,

Monday, February 18

What beautiful weather! No way it can last, though. We've got a lot more of the cold kind before sun-bathing!!

Measuring for caps and gowns, ordering graduation announcements, planning the Senior trip: everyone's getting caught in the flurry of our last year! Doesn't seem possible. I'm happy, and sad ya know?!

But, over 3 months of homework and teachers face us all. And with this terrific sunshine, how can I stay inside?

Later,

← Spring fever?!

Seniors — Do You Remember the

Initiation 1971 -- Abby Wilson

I remember the time Piney, Robin, and I were in the O.E. class, 6th hour for typing and we didn't have a teacher for the hour. So we called over the pit for cokes and candy bars and just as they were being brought over, Mrs. Gardner walked in and caught us. We had to stay 7th hour with Mr. Bowyer the next day. -- Cathy Tannehill

The outstanding memory of my high school years is the time the girls track team absolutely plastered Samuel's place with t.p. and beer cans only to find out the whole family was standing in the house watching! -- Rhonda Schiler

The night Paula and I watched her car melt. -- Sheryl Hight

Some of my memories are running to be the first one in line to eat on all the band trips to be sure you had to eat. My knees shaking during Football Homecoming when I got first attendant, and Jill, Mindy, Kim, Kathy, and me running the streets of Ottawa wearing ball caps on our way home from pom-pon camp. -- Susan Weed

My most memorable experiences were passing Sharp's classes, dissecting a frog in biology, and living through the acid experiments in chemistry. -- Rhonda Mallet

Going to the pits on weekends when I was a sophomore and all the memories at Taco Pete's. -- Jeanine Hildebrandt

The best memory that stands out in my mind was the surprise birthday party my friends gave me on my eighteenth birthday. -- Joe Grisolano

Seeing Carl Flora kissing the football homecoming queen and watching the Grange. -- David Wydick

When Debbie Evans chased Steve Smith around the room with an umbrella in Miss Watson's history class my junior year. -- Colleen Bishop

The time Ralph smacked a sign with a can in Brian's car and it bounced back and tore the vinyl roof. Brian told his parents a bunch of goat ropers in a pick-up had thrown something at us. -- Doug Stallard

Lindsborg Yearbook Workshop in the Summer of '73 with Trace and the whole Warner group. Parties with Charlie's chicken, potato salad fights and running into closets to hide. (Remember burned lower lips, photog.?) Also, getting 1st place award at the workshop. -- Rhonda Garman

Contest, Danny's, my wreck, Mrs. Hyde, under the band risers, falling out of my seat at least 20 times in history, walking into the door on my way to the bathroom initiation '73, coal bucket, and my scoop. -- Mona Genser

Graduation party last year, running around with a lime in my mouth saying, "I've got a lime," and people coming up to Barbara Leverich after the party and asking her what she was doing with a lime in her mouth. -- Linda Kirby

Time . . .

Waiting three years to be a winner, then living with a loss. -- Tim Thomas

The most memorable thing that happened to me was when I was crossing the street with Theresa and these greasers rode by and barked at us! Bow-wow. -- Julie Sharshal

I discovered in physics, that I should have blown up the school in chemistry, so I wouldn't have to dissect any more frogs. Now I am an educated senior. -- George Steele

Homecomings, football games, weekends, working, summer, bike riding, New Year's, going to the lake, 1/2 pit parties, the office, and just plain, old, raising "cain," seem to reflect many memories of my years at P.H.S., but many more must be left simply as memories. -- Carolyn Berkey

My most memorable thoughts were the time we skipped second hour Spanish to go to the Pit telling Mrs. Swafford my mother was there and wanted to talk to me. -- Deb Swartz

I remember losing my clothes in a strip pit after initiation as a sophomore. I came home with a blanket wrapped around me and all the neighbor's were staring. -- Kathy Baker

The time my car was stuck in a pit and Glidewell's pulled off the bumper getting it out. We drove down Broadway, bumper pulled off and muffler dragging at 2 o'clock, and my dad drove up next to us. -- Glenn DePoy

My memories reflect back on spending the night at Lakeside Park, Basketball homecoming of '73, suspension of the "terrible six" of '73 and '74, and our trip to the Emporia basketball tournament. -- Susan Patrick

The day I got my hand caught in a printing press and Mr. Elliot went crazy. -- Michael Gregg

The time Don Free, Rusty Lester, Jeff DeGasperi, and I took a boat trip down the Neosho River at 2 a.m. -- Fred Kennon

Board of Directors meetings, S.N.A. F.U. vs. Bochita U. intramural basketball game, Grange vs. the Altamont Pep Club, snow skiing behind Mark Pauley's car, the "Wives," kazoo band, the mobile bar, walking through state park (initiation) with Doug James- naked. -- David Barber

Graduation parties. Don't remember them, but people told me I was there. -- Stephen Bolinger

My favorite memory was the snowball dance this year. After the dance we went to the Pizza Hut and I got beer spilled on my formal. -- Jennifer Aronhalt

I have several memorable experiences but none are suitable for printing in the yearbook. -- Carl Corn

Squads of Underclassmen: Male And Female: Gain Experience, And Excel . . .

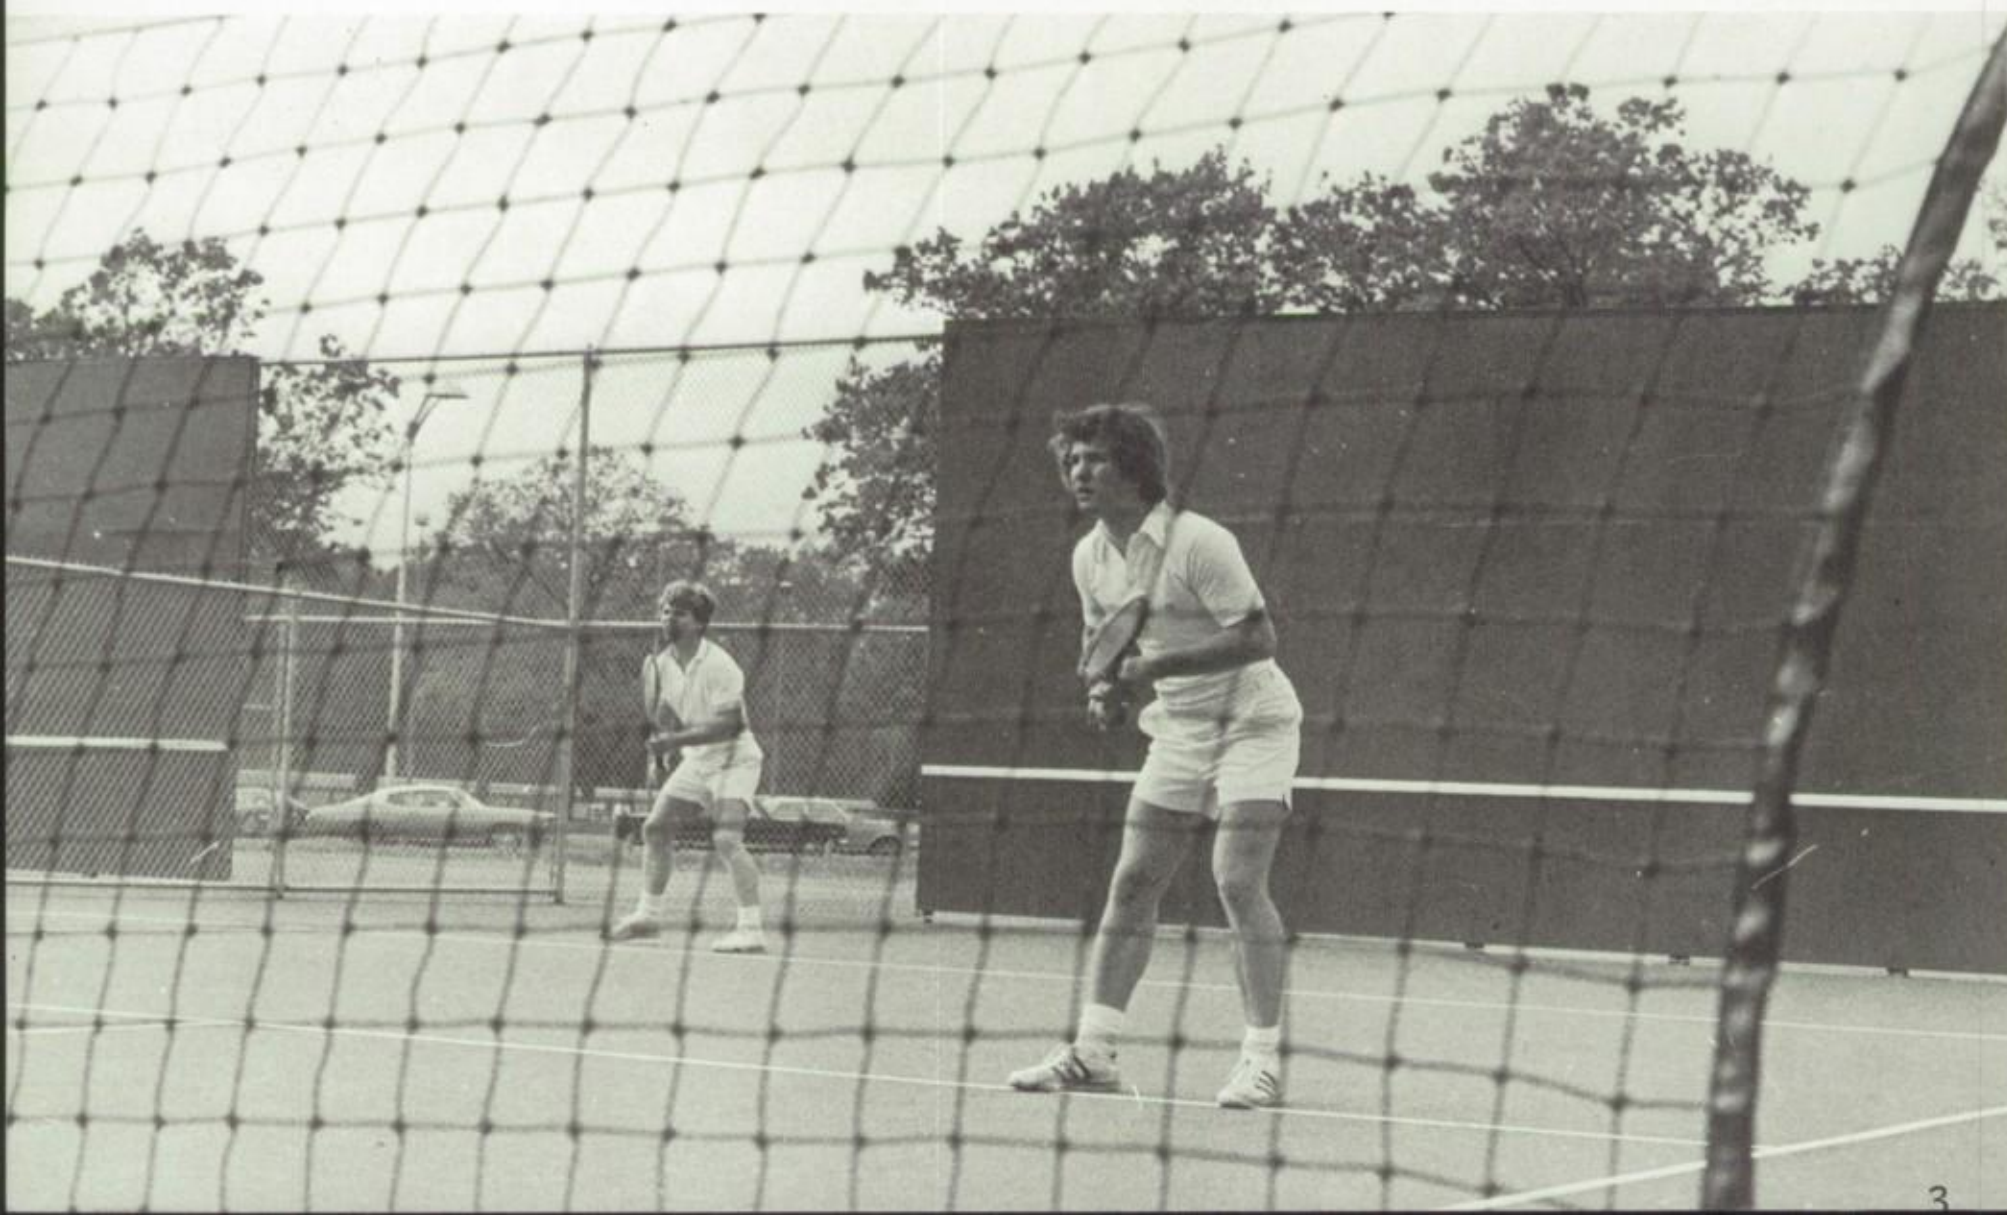

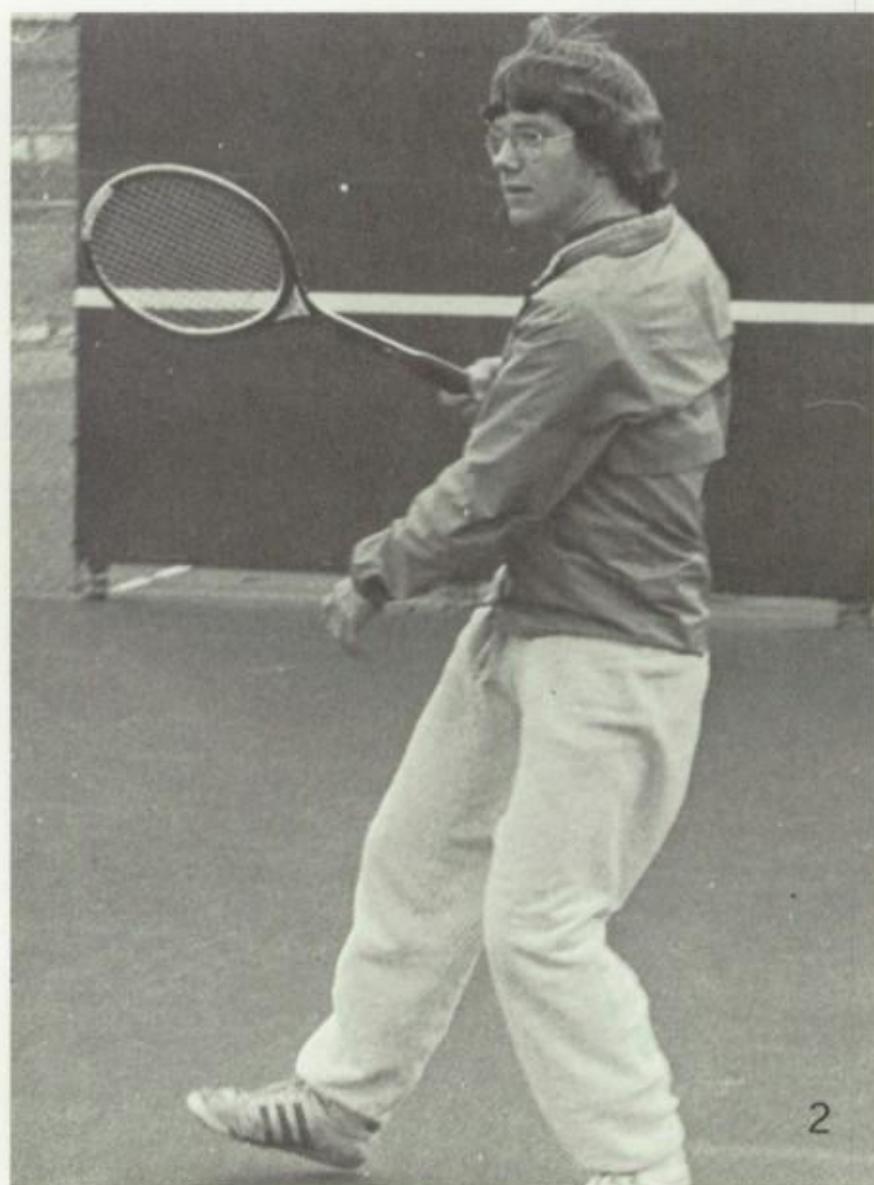

(1) Jamie Ortaloni lands in a tense position as he practices his running long jump. According to Jamie, "Last year there were a lot of sophomores on the squad and if all are planning on being in track for 1974, we will have a good team." (2) Rudy is flying high over the bar in one of his many fantastic vaults. The 12 foot, 6 inch vault, set by Rudy Polchlopek, was a new record for PHS tracksters. (3) Dianne Daugherty and Joni Johnson watch Lori Herman as she clears the high jump bar. Lori placed second in the Forst Scott meet with a jump of 4 feet, 6 inches. (4) Jeff Goble flies over a hurdle in warm-ups. Besides high and low hurdles, Jeff competed in the relays and the broad jump. (5) Rhonda Schiler hands the baton to Colleen Bishop while participating in the 440 relay. (6) Maribeth Caldwell winds up to throw the discus. She made the finals at the Regional meet held in Shawnee Mission. (7) Susie Webb lands from a running leap, but falls backwards, voiding the jump.

Not Always Winning, But Always a Good Time!

(1) Coach Lamont, viewing the action from behind the fence on a cold afternoon match. He has seen many days of this sort, as he has had six years experience coaching tennis. (2) Ralph Taylor warms-up before a match by returning a teammates serve. (3) Jay Fulton and Curt Brumbaugh are ready for action as they await an opponents serve. This two-some was practically unbeatable as they finished third in the South-East Kansas League during the 1973 season.

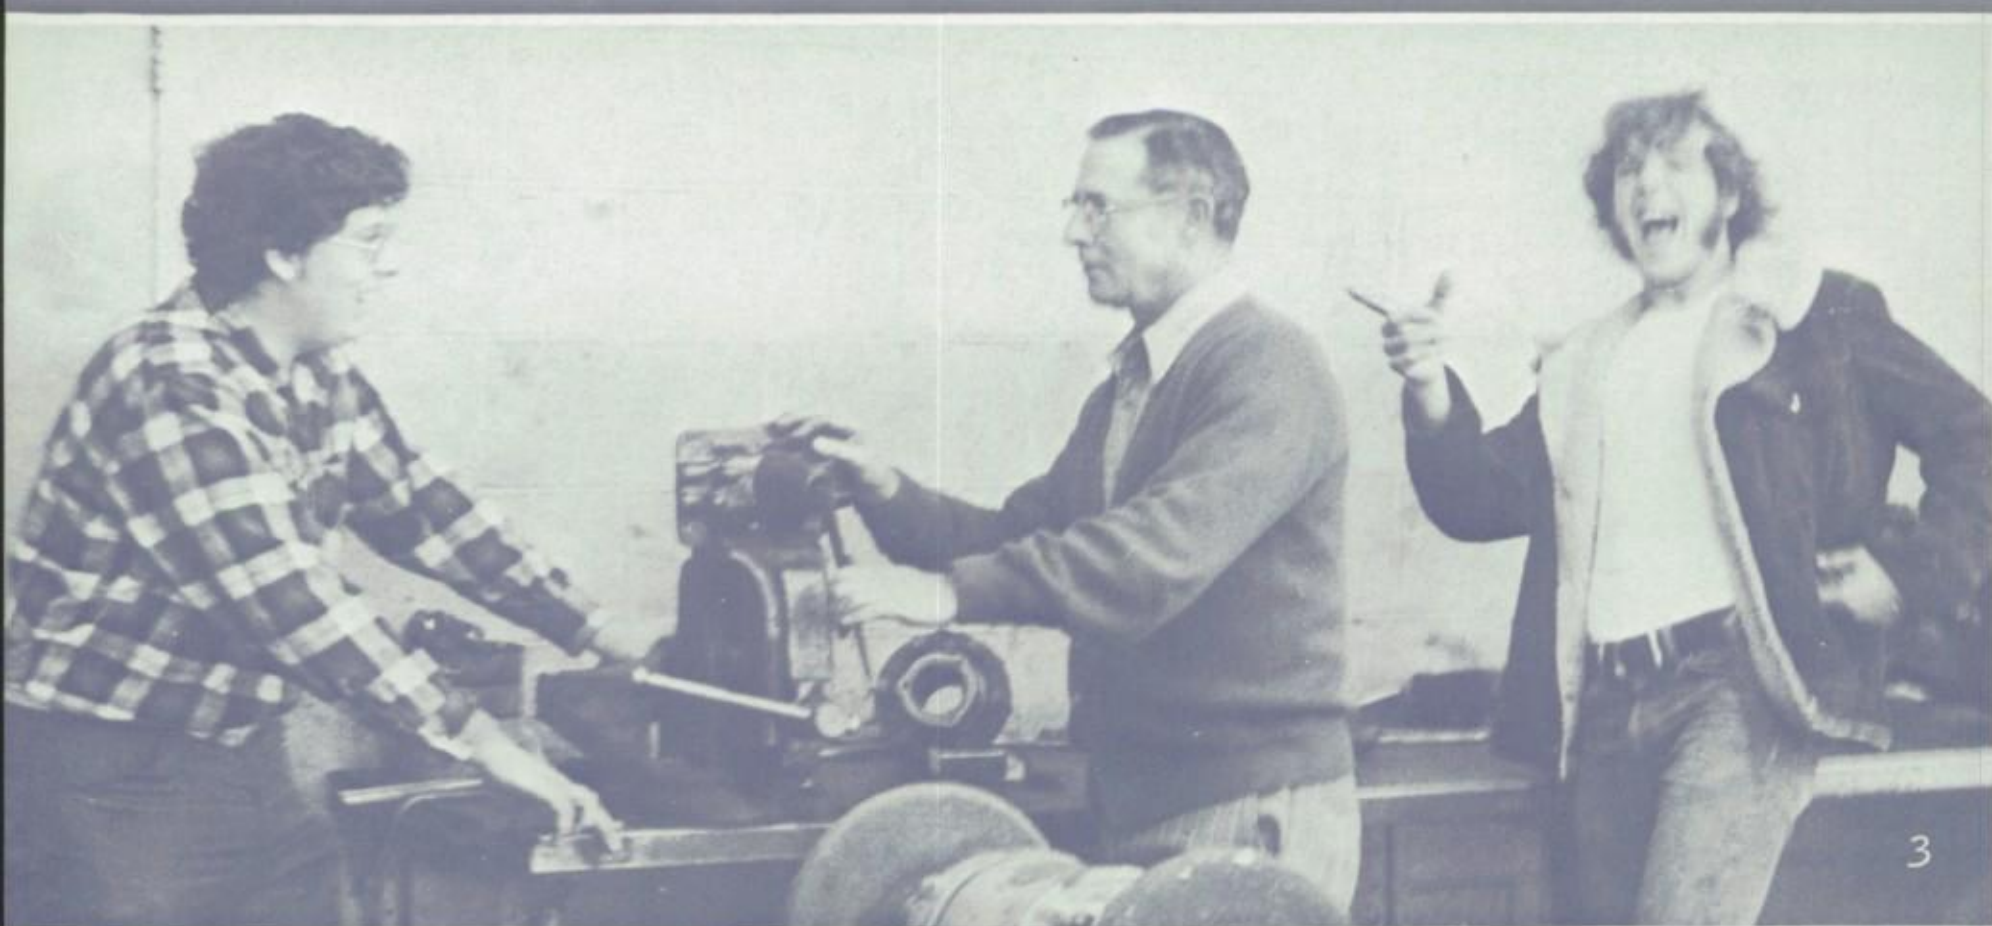

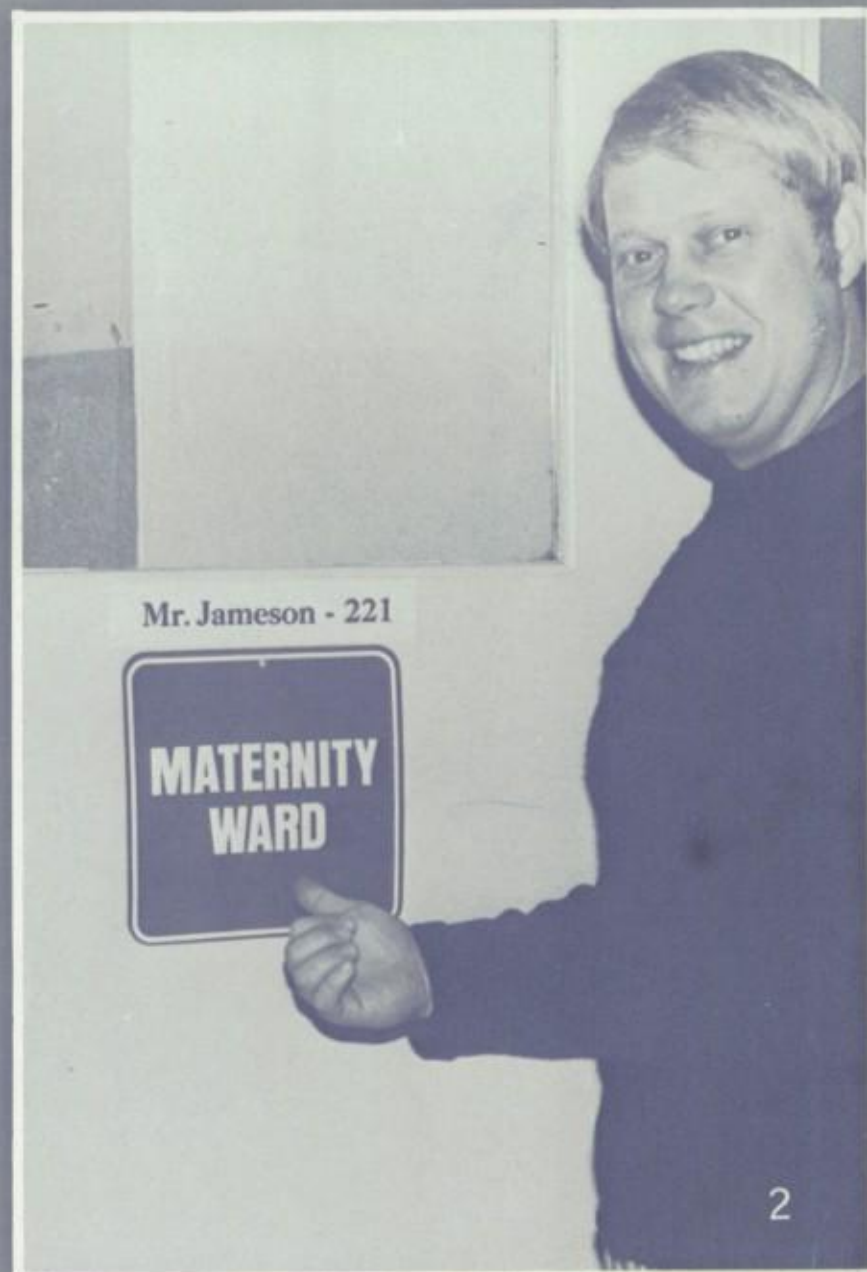

Linksters Tally Good Year on the Green

(1) The 1973 golf team praises Coach Tewell with upraised clubs. "The King of the Links", they call him. (2) Keith Welty drives out of a sand trap. (3) Tim Thomas smilingly wonders whether to make the putt or just kick the ball into the hole. (4) Mark Matlock watches his putt slowly roll towards the pin on hole number five. (5) Being a caddy for the whole team in Coach Dan Tewell. Mr. Tewell enjoys golf as a pastime and has coached the squad for six years.

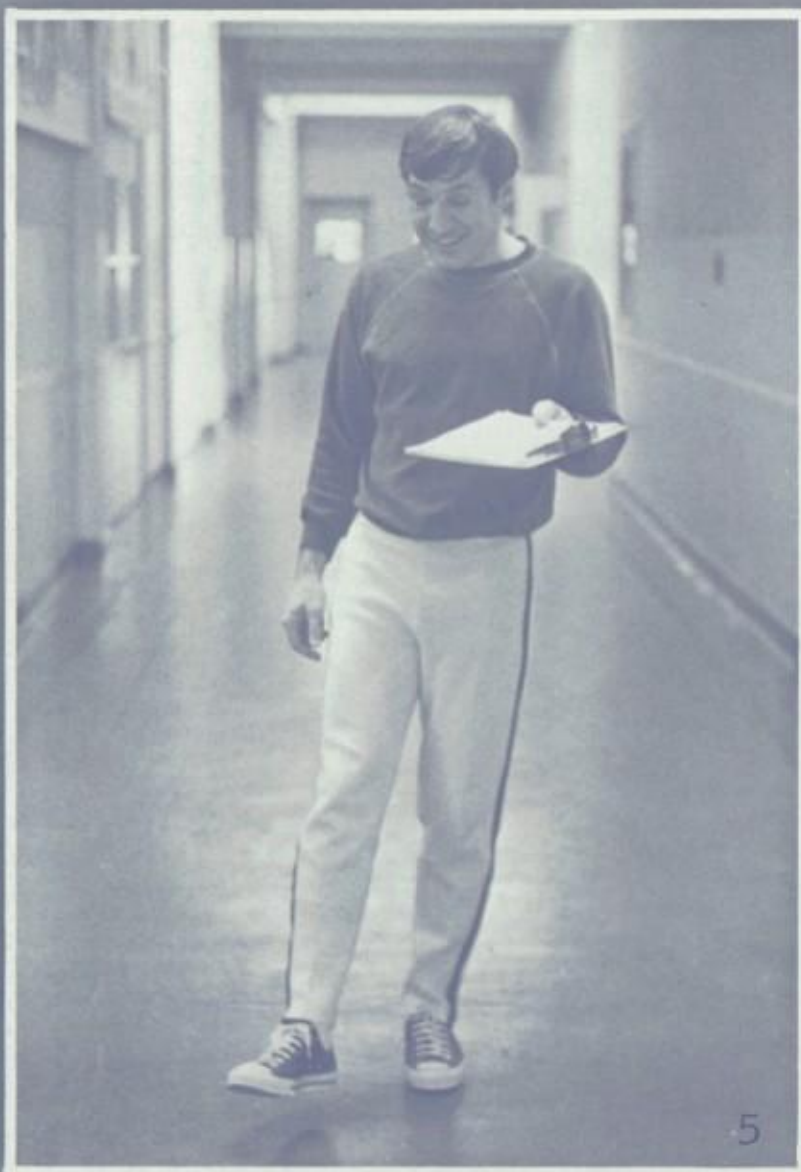

There Are Those Lighter Moments

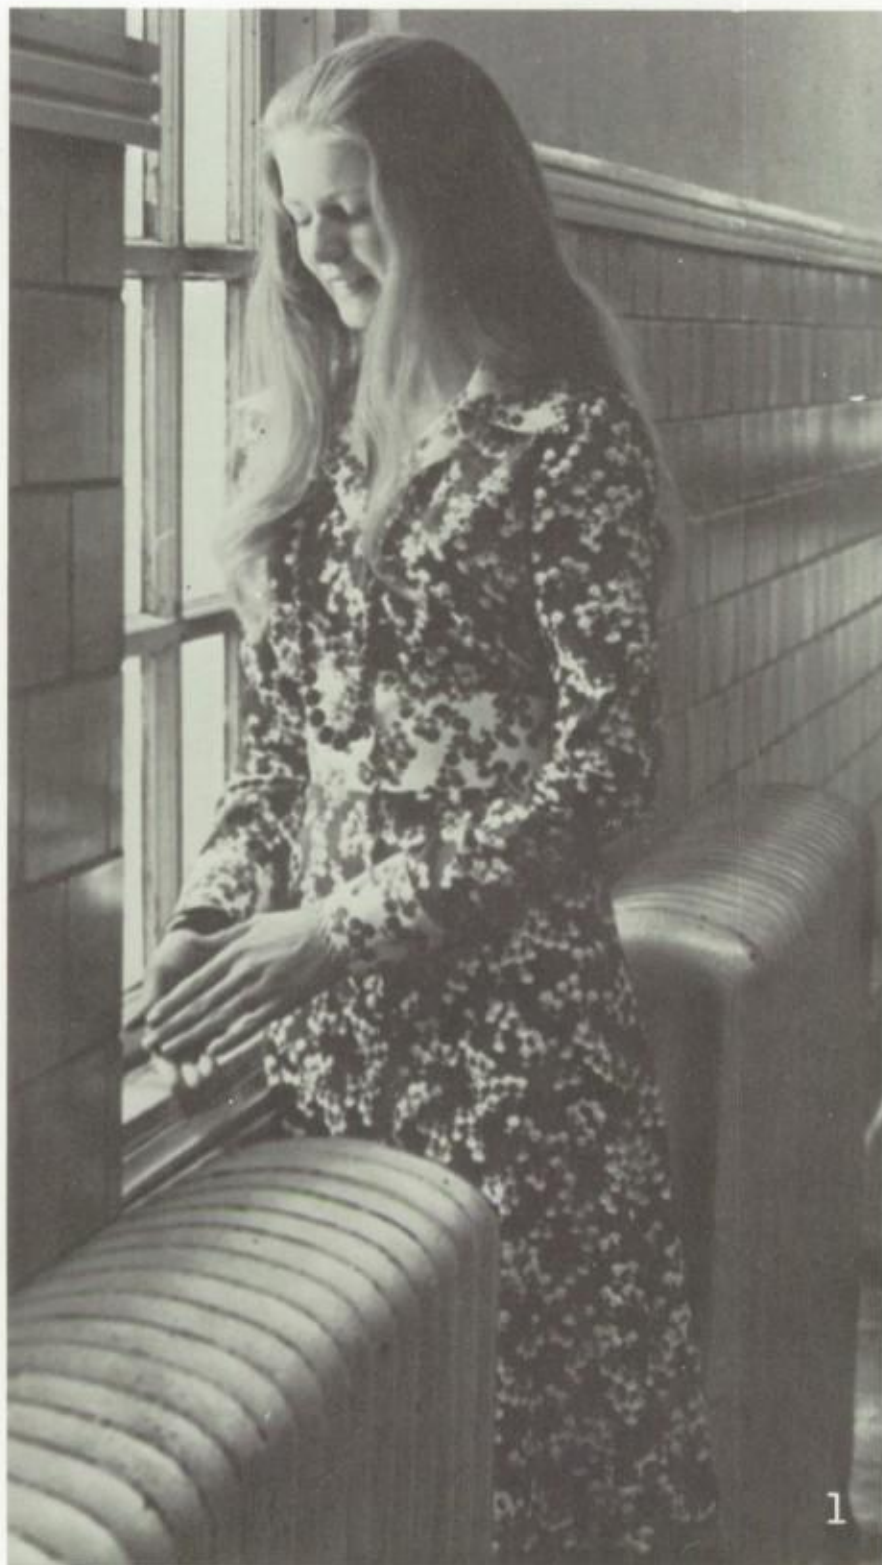

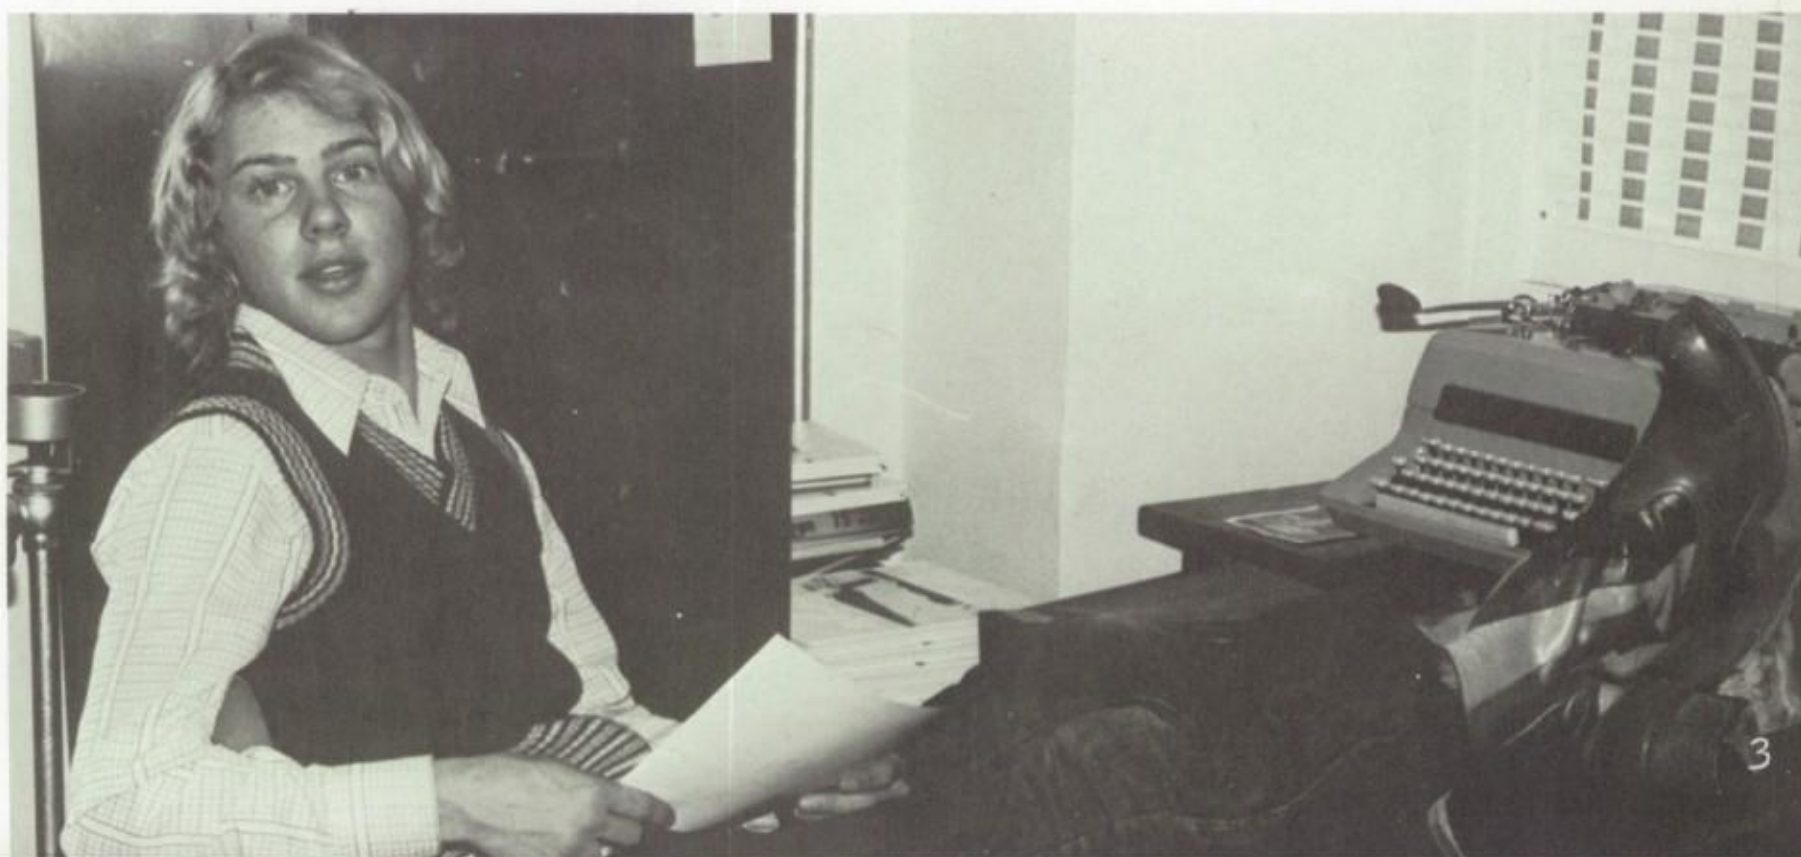

Teachers--you know, strange things happen to the kids at this school, but you never hear about things that go on with the teachers. In class, they are of a totally different breed than when on their own, although often their private lives occasionally reflect in their school time activities. (1) Janet Dalton, Home-Ec and Family Living instructor does not only the dishes at home, but aids her girls in their foods classes. Wonder if she uses Ivory? (2) Everyone wondered why Allen Jameson wasn't at school Wednesday, January 10. And everyone found out Thursday. Joe Bournonville came to school at 7:00 a.m. with his sign, and Mr. Jameson displayed it all day, with pride. Julie Jo was born at 11:09 a.m., weighing 7 lbs., 7 oz. and was 20 inches long. Not bad, Mr. Jameson!! (3) Many teachers claim to have eyes in the back of their heads. Guess Jesse Sutton doesn't! (4) Larry Garman not only teaches phys-ed, he plays doctor. Here, Rick Hurst gets a whirlpool bath as Doctor Garman looks on. (5) Not many teachers can get by with running around the hall's in tennys, but Bill Hanson enjoys showing off his new purple ones. (6) "You say I'm teaching this class?" Nothing like teacher to student contact, as anyone that has ever been in one of Susan Miller's English class well knows!!

... the Way We Were!

(1) Debbie in her knee-length dress, looks longingly out the window. (2) Ron Davis' platforms got alot of attention, just wondered if they're from Thomas and Son. (3) David Barber 'sittin' down, just showing off those fancy boots. (4) Hmm, what's so interesting? These guys are showing off their everyday basic blue jeans, included are the many rips, holes, and patches. (5) Some people thought it was neat to wear socks that were really different. A lot of us ran to buy the glitter "HOT SOX", and then many of us just poked through the old trunks in the attic for socks! (6) Bill Bengston looking well dressed as usual!

“Typical Americans”

Some people took the time to put down their studies and take part in other activities. Not everyone likes to do the same thing. Our school has all kinds and it wouldn't be the same without us.

We've Got Spirit, Yes We Do! We've Got Sp

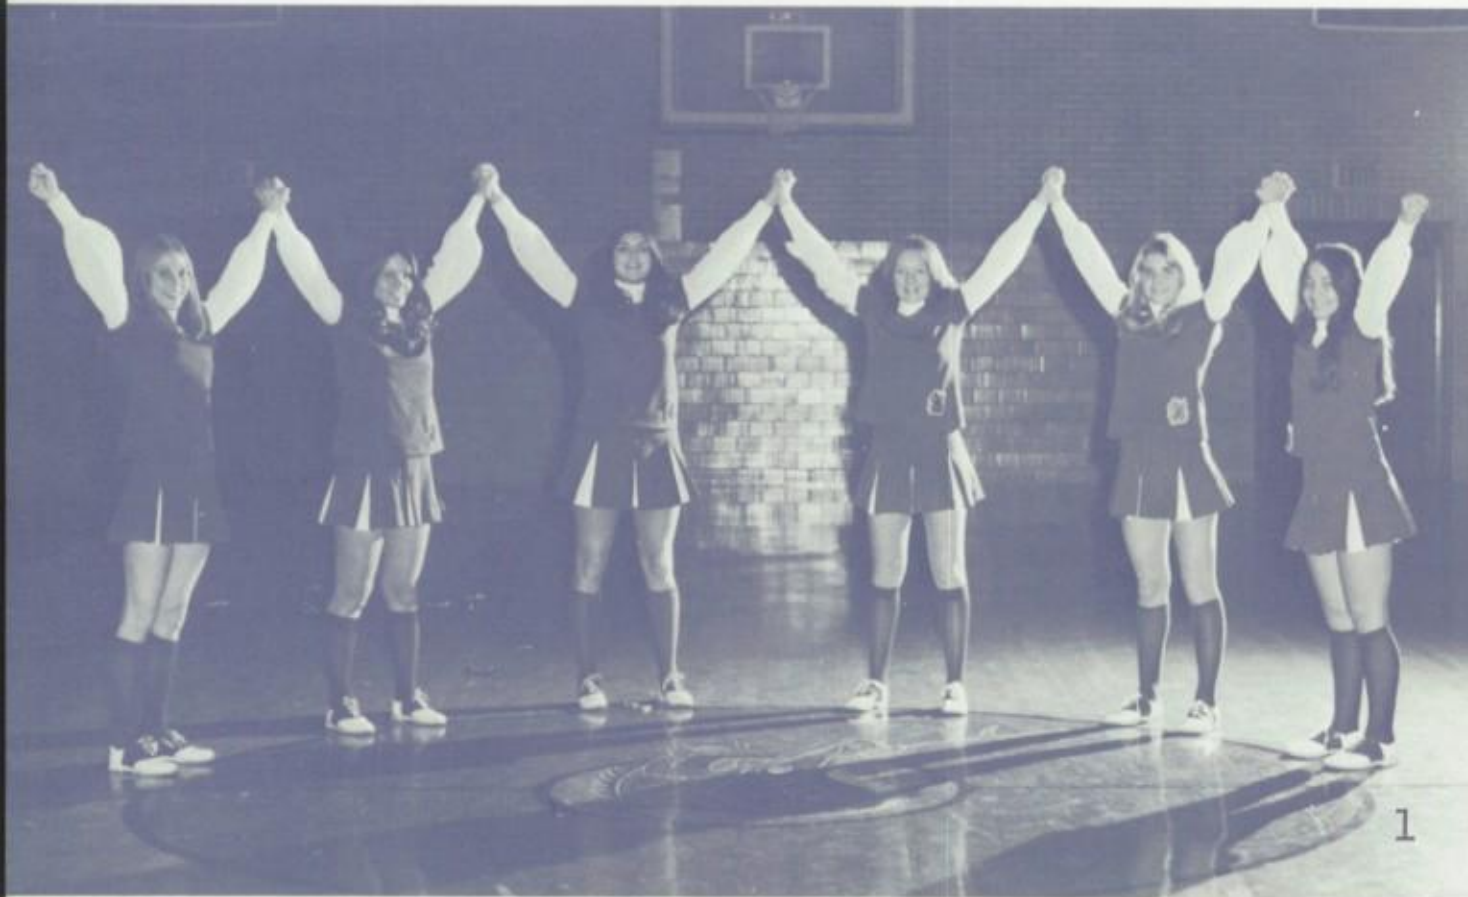

(1) Junior and Senior pep club members are: Mary Ellen Pogson, Kim Clugston, Cindy Divine, Susie Deill, Susan Patrick, Rhonda Garman, Bernie Hiner, Terre Spencer, Liz Troxel, Robin Osborn, Mona Genser, Michelle O'Connell, Jeanne Middleton, Jeanne Lyden, Colleen Bishop, Mindy Kreissler, Peggy Berteau, Denise Park, Phyllis Lamborn, Judy Deckard, Barbara Tims, Jackie Ferraro, Kim Nesbitt, Janice Hoy, Beverly Munsell, Tina Brewer, Patty Standlee, Crystal Mathis, Linda Williams and Sheryl Barton. (2) Sophomore members are: Kerri Church, Marianne Kreissler, Debbie Kennett, Diana Hurt, Meg Nettels, Linda Baker, Diane Blessant, Pam Davidson, Kristy Torbett, Carol Robb, Mary Kay Mishmash, Carla Doss, Derillyn Sharp, Susan Spineto, Andrea Trinklein, Lisa Shelton, Denise Bolinger, Connie Kemp, Sheryl Anderson, Kathy Genesio, Carla Scasiletti, Laura Bolen, Cheryl Sirratt and Gloria Blurton. (3) Junior Varsity cheerleaders for the 1973-1974 season are Meg Nettels, Kerri Church, Diana Hurt, Marianne Kreissler and Debbie Kennett. (4) Liz Troxel, secretary; sponsors Mrs. Sandra Emerson and Mrs. Frances Samuels; Mona Genser, treasurer; Robin Osborn, Vice-president and Terre Spencer, president. (5) The pep club and cheerleaders get it together pre-game with OUR PLEDGE cheer.

it, How 'Bout You?

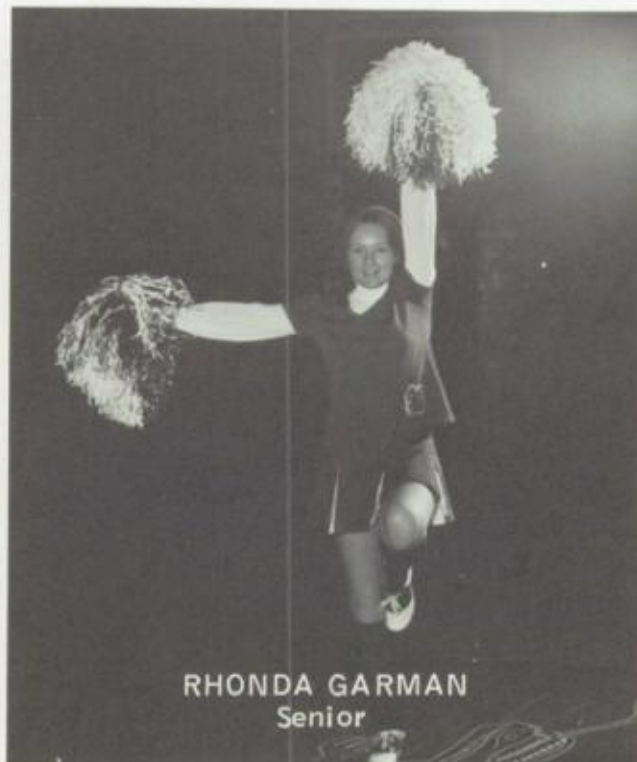

(1) Traditions often start in strange ways. "DRAGON POWER" began at the first football game in 1973 with the pep club and cheerleaders clasping hands above heads, and, on the count of three, shouting DRAGON POWER. Every game ended this way. Here varsity cheerleaders Mary Ellen Pogson, Susan Patrick, Susie Deill, Rhonda Garman, Kim Clugston and Cindy Divine demonstrate DRAGON POWER! (2) Various pep assemblies were presented throughout the year by the cheerleaders. Here Don Free assists in a dating game assembly previous to the football homecoming game. Mary Ellen Pogson was Don's date, and Rhonda Garman was master of ceremonies. (3) Displaying an award winning formation and their coveted spirit stick are the varsity cheerleaders. (4) Another assembly; this time, Little People! (5) Getting ready for the season after returning from camp meant many long hours of practice.

Cheerleading does not begin in the fall for the varsity cheerleaders at PHS. Up until the very day of departure for Shamrock Cheerleading Camp, after their election in the spring, practices to get into shape and perfect cheers were held by these six girls. The work paid off, in four superior ribbons, an "incredible" (remember those smiles?), getting to bring the spirit stick home and competing for the Coca-Cola award. Many friends were made, and alot was learned from seeing great squads perform. Upon returning, practices continued and everyone was more than ready for the season to begin. Football came and went, with parties, posters and happy and sad moments together. Basketball season began, and it happened. The varsity cheerleaders were suspended for disobeying school rules. Stranger things have happened, and the three games went off pretty well. After being allowed to cheer again, the year went on pretty normally, and ended very sadly. All they went through together brought Susie, Susan, Rhonda, Kim, Cindy and Mary Ellen very close. Memories of Coal Bucket, homecoming, Ft. Scott, poster painting and Emporia: things these girls will never forget, were shared by six very different girls, alike in one definite aspect: they wanted to provide spirit at PHS and make athletics enjoyable from the stands. And that they did!

75 Kids With Good Voices Don't Make

With 75 people we have a good sized choir. We sang for the Talent Show, and planned a Christmas Vespers Program which was canceled due to the weather. Chansonaires were formed and had a good year. We went to the District Choir Festival in the Spring. We featured a new rock number complete with a rock band as accompanist. We sang in the Spring Musical. We went to State contest, all of us, the Choir, Chansonaires, Small Ensembles and Soloists. For the future Mr. Gough sees either a training choir or a sophomore choir. Also he would like to have an A Capella Choir from which to join, an audition would be required. From these chosen few, another group would be formed, called Chansonaires.

Conducting a Choir really isn't all that easy.

a Choir, But It Helps

(2) BOTTOM ROW: Janice Pope, Connie Kemp, Gina Taglieri, Cindy Prince, Leah Tierney, Marie Shayhan, Donna Fish, Deana Colton. 2nd ROW: Veronica Adamson, Becky Grisham, Marianne Kreissler, Robin Osborn, Becky Brunskill, Robin Lane, Karen Hoffman, Joyce Butler, John Gallion. 3rd ROW: Debbie Hatfield, Mary Mishmash, Sheri Brown, Kathy Genisio, Cindy Sloan, Nancy Howard, Bill Bendt, Brian Foster. 4th ROW: Careyn Frost, Roxanne Pierson, Sue Horton.

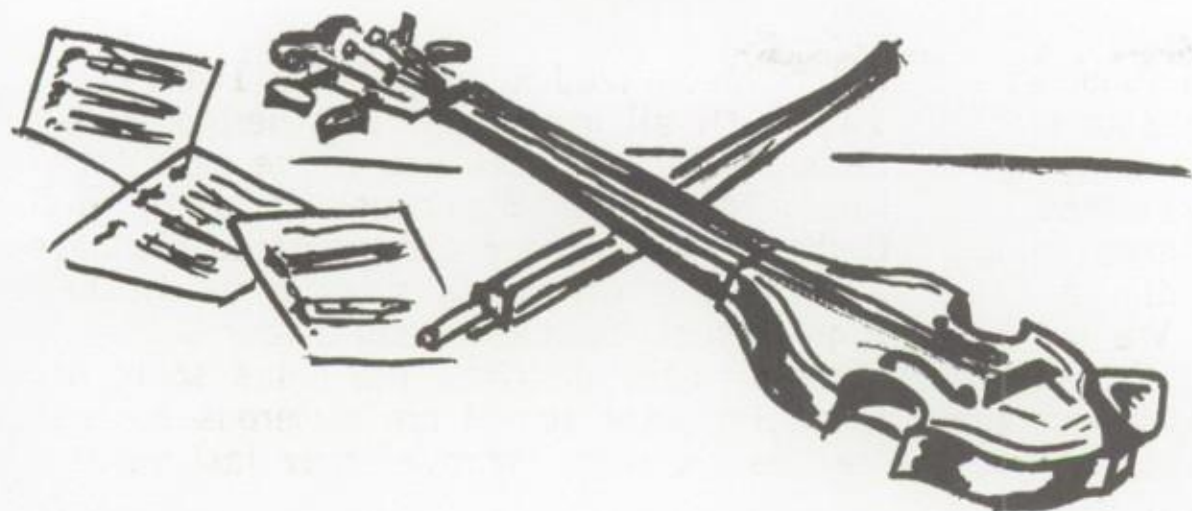

We're More Than Just Violins,

Bake sales, car washes, chili suppers, playing engagements, this may not sound like orchestra, but it is. It was by doing these kind of things that we earned money for our uniforms. Once we got uniforms, concerts were planned. We played at dinner engagements and toured the town. We went to the District Orchestra Festival, State Contest, S.E.K. District Orchestra workshop and concert. We played for the All School Play. Our feature groups were a Baroque Orchestra which specialized in music from 1600 to 1750. Of all music from this period, Handel's "Watermusic" is one of the most famous, we played "Watermusic." Also a Full Orchestra was formed and practiced Mondays after school, our concerts being one in the High School Auditorium and a tour of the schools in the district. The hours spent in practicing after school are numerous but we feel we are much improved over last year.

Drama — We Learn to Act Upon

(1) Shown here are Drama Club officers: Randy Buford, Pres; Nancy Flag, V. Pres.; Jenny Mcleod, Sec; Doug Walker, Tami Sullinger, Derrilyn Sharp, Co Program Chairmen. (2) Randy Buford poises as "Faegan" in the all-school production of Oliver. (3) One of the many projects done by the PHS Drama Department was the production of "Sad Day at the Saw Mill or Cheaters Never Prosper." This melodrama was written and directed by Randy Buford and Juli Sharshal with the assistance of Mrs. Ruth Bloomcamp and class. (4) These seven students are shown practicing their One-Act Play, Jonnathon Livingston Sea-gull for the forensic season.

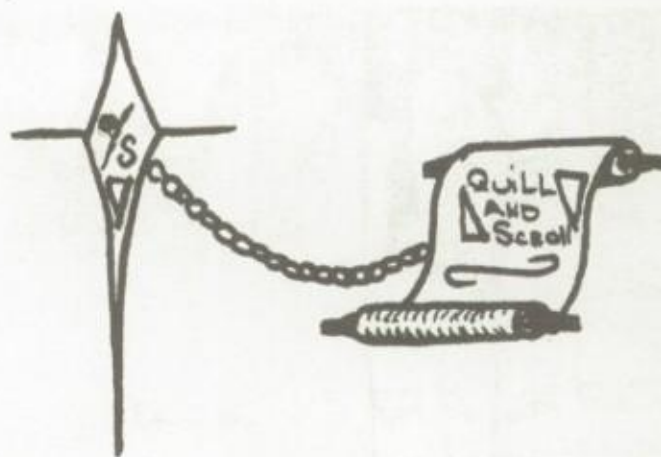

the Stage of Life

The Broadway Production of Oliver, the Melodramer, and the many trophies and medals they've won; only proves one thing. The PHS Drama Club is a very successful team.

Journalists Corps d'élite

Quill and Scroll, an honorary journalistic society, is open to all Junior and Senior students that work on the Booster or the Purple and White. Required to be in the upper third of their class, 9 girls joined this year. Officers, elected at the first meeting, are Pam Ward, President, Julie Widner, Vice President, and Cherrie Harris, Sec. Treasurer. Representing the Booster staff were Marilyn Heitz, Cherrie Harris, Deni Morris, Sherrie Frank, and Pam Ward. Rhonda Garman, Deane Daugherty, Sara Powell, and Julie Widner are members from the staff of the 1974 Purple and White.

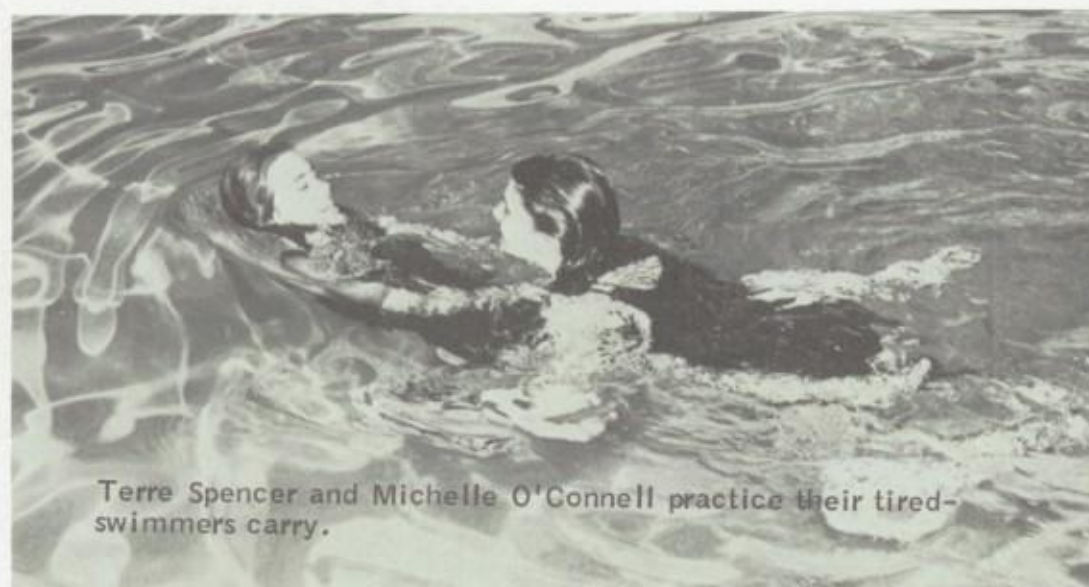

Senior Lifesaving — Last One in the Pool . . .

Bernie Hiner, Crystal Martin, Colleen Bishop, Penny Murray, Mary Ellen Pogson, Terre Spencer, Susie Webb, and Michelle O'Connell.

Susie Webb demonstrates a spread-eagle.

Terre Spencer and Michelle O'Connell practice their tired-swimmers carry.

Wait a minute, Terre!

These girls spent Monday's, Tuesday's, and Wednesday's, after school for five weeks, learning the different water skills and safety measures necessary to pass the course, but still managed to get in a few laughs. Right, Michelle?

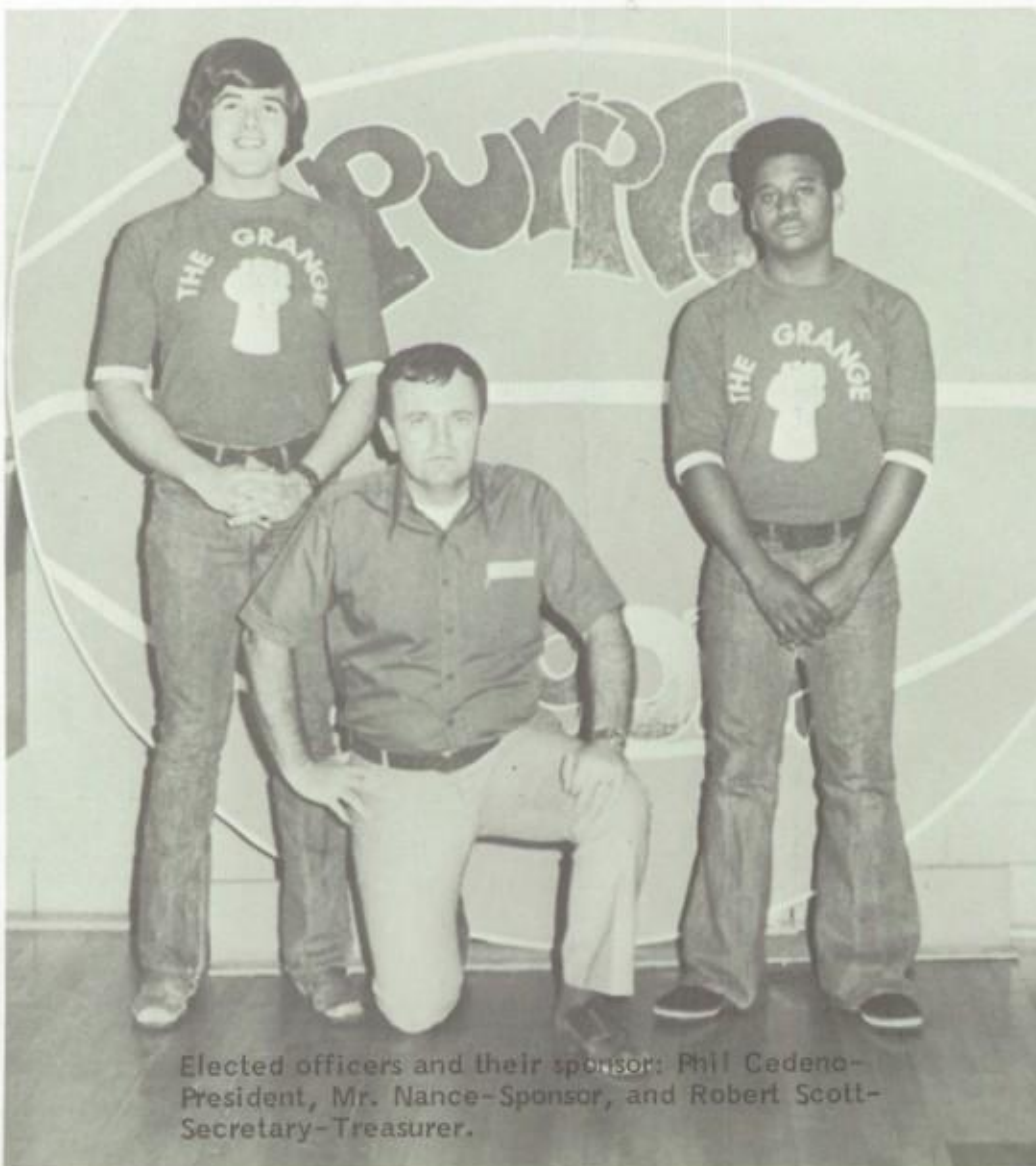

Mrs. Samuels, lifesaving instructor.

Elevator, Elevator, We Got the Shaft

Elected officers and their sponsor: Phil Cedeno-President, Mr. Nance-Sponsor, and Robert Scott-Secretary-Treasurer.

For the first time since '71' the GRANGE has become an organization once again. Due to certain circumstances beyond anyone's control, the Grange was dissolved in 1971. The guys found a sponsor, Mr. Nance, and the Grange as an organization was on its way again. Purple and White t-shirts with The Grange and "Power Fist" printed on them, along with blue jeans is the official outfit. Elected officers are Phil Cedeno-President and Robert Scott-Secretary-Treasurer.

Two Seniors Propel Reorganization

After a two year absence, FCA was started again by Doug James and Tim Thomas, who got involved enough to go to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Summer Camp in Colorado. These boys decided FCA was an important part of team play and that it was a needed aspect in high school athletics. Coach Hanson, sponsors the group at Monday night meetings.

"I found her diary underneath a tree,
and started reading about me.
The words she'd written took me by surprise."

--David Gates and "BREAD"

Did they take you by surprise? For the second consecutive year, the Purple and White staff attacked the book: changes are what we thrive on!

Diaries are a very personal thing; close to the heart of anyone that keeps a diary. With "One Year Diary: 1974", we hope each of you feel you personally shared with us a part of this year.

When Mr. Harry told me Dianne was to be my assistant editor, I was thrilled. Another Daughterty! Not so. But I luv her. Thanks for everything and, remember the poem...

Greg and Jerry, the darkroom slaves. All my gratitude. And, by the way, I lost this picture...

Charlie Lang and Howard Dusek--what can I say? Thank-you, and I hope we're not through!

Thanks also to Michelle and Bob for a great Community section and some terrific artwork. And Sara, Lori and Densie for our fifth hour talk sessions. Liz, we're sorry you left. What do you think of the book? Mindy, Julie, Sue, Cindy, Greg and Steve: you're the best bunch of staffers any editor could ever have!

And Mr. Harry: maybe we didn't always see eye to eye, but, a super-sincere thank you. You got me into yearbooking, and I'm forever grateful!

Well, everyone's thanked and the year is over. "No beans, Pug, but I'll pass the ideas on. Who know's, it may be next years' theme?"

Rhonda

Diary,

Wednesday, April 24

Clothes, cars, food! Spring brings out my buying instincts. And with the selection provided by Pittsburg merchants, I could go crazy with $100.⁰⁰ in each store, easily!

Trying on and testing are big parts of my buying. And the stores that give me these freedoms are the ones I keep going back to.

We have some great merchants in Pittsburg! They support us and we support them!!

Later,

dig them
dude!

(1) Officers Deni Morris, President; Rhonda Mallett, Treasurer; Jana Sullinger, Secretary; and Sherry Elliott, Vice-President discuss usage of Latin words with sponsor Carmen Swafford. Mrs. Swafford also sponsors the Spanish club. Wonder if she ever speaks English? (2) Latin club members in the newly formed organization, that almost missed our last yearbook shipment (!) are Jana Sullinger, Rhonda Mallett, Sherry Elliott, Mitch Hull, David Govaker, Cheri Crook, Deni Morris and Charles Farmer.
